DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Registrant's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) as of the end of the period covered by this annual report (the "Evaluation Date"). Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Registrant in reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and (ii) accumulated and communicated to the Registrant's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

MANAGEMENT'S ANNUAL REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting for the Registrant. Internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Due to its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of its effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management has excluded twelve majority-owned entities acquired by the Registrant during the last fiscal period from its assessment of internal control over financial reporting as at December 31, 2023. The total assets and total revenues of the twelve majority-owned entities represent 4.8% and 2.6%, respectively, of the related consolidated financial statement amounts as at and for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Management has assessed the effectiveness of the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2023, based on the criteria set forth in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this assessment, management has concluded that the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting was effective as of December 31, 2023.

The effectiveness of the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2023 has been audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm (PCAOB Firm ID: 271), as stated in their report filed in Exhibit 2 of this Annual Report on Form 40-F.

CHANGES IN INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

During the year ended December 31, 2023, there were no changes in the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting.

NOTICES PURSUANT TO REGULATION BTR

There were no notices required by Rule 104 of Regulation BTR that the Registrant sent during the year ended December 31, 2023 concerning any equity security subject to a blackout period under Rule 101 of Regulation BTR.

AUDIT COMMITTEE FINANCIAL EXPERT

The Registrant's board of directors (the "Board of Directors") has determined that it has at least one audit committee financial expert (as such term is defined in item 8(a) of General Instruction B to Form 40-F) serving on its audit committee (the "Audit Committee"). Ms. Joan Sproul has been determined by the Board of Directors to be such audit committee financial expert and is independent (as such term is defined by the NASDAQ Stock Market's corporate governance standards applicable to the Registrant).

Ms. Sproul was most recently the Executive Vice President, Finance (CFO) & Chief Administrative Officer of the Sinai Health System in Toronto, Canada. In addition to serving more than 20 years in various finance and corporate-related roles at Mount Sinai Hospital, she previously held a number of senior financial positions in the hospitality industry. Ms. Sproul was named to the list of Canada's Most Powerful Women, Women's Executive Network, 2013. Ms. Sproul holds a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) designation, having qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1981 and began her career at Ernst & Whinney. Ms. Sproul holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Toronto.

The SEC has indicated that the designation of Ms. Joan Sproul as an audit committee financial expert does not make her an "expert" for any purpose, impose on her any duties, obligations or liability that are greater than the duties, obligations or liability imposed on her as a member of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors in absence of such designation, or affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the Audit Committee or Board of Directors.

CODE OF ETHICS

The Registrant has adopted a Code of Ethics and Conduct that applies to all directors, officers and employees of the Registrant and its subsidiaries, and a Financial Management Code of Ethics, which applies to senior management and senior financial and accounting personnel of the Registrant and its subsidiaries. A copy of the Code of Ethics and Conduct and the Financial Management Code of Ethics can be obtained, free of charge, on the Registrant's website (www.firstservice.com) or by contacting the Registrant at (416) 960-9566.

FIRSTSERVICE CORPORATION

ANNUAL INFORMATION FORM
(February 22, 2024)

Corporate structure

We were formed under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) as "New FSV Corporation" pursuant to Articles of Incorporation effective on October 6, 2014. On June 1, 2015, our predecessor, FirstService Corporation ("Old FSV"), completed a plan of arrangement (the "Spin-off") which separated Old FSV into two independent publicly traded companies – FirstService and Colliers International Group Inc. Under the Spin-off, Old FSV shareholders received one FirstService share and one Colliers International Group Inc. share of the same class as each Old FSV share previously held, Old FSV amalgamated with a wholly-owned subsidiary and changed its name to Colliers International Group Inc., and FirstService's name was changed to "FirstService Corporation".

On May 10, 2019, we settled the Restated Management Services Agreement, including the long-term incentive arrangement therein, between FirstService, Jay S. Hennick and Jayset Management FSV Inc. and eliminated FirstService's dual class share structure. On that date, FirstService also effected an amendment to its articles that eliminated the multiple voting shares and the "blank cheque" preference shares as part of the authorized capital of FirstService, and re-classified its subordinate voting shares as common shares. This transaction is further described in FirstService's management information circular dated March 25, 2019 relating to the annual and special meeting of shareholders held on May 3, 2019 under "Business of the Meeting – Approval of Transaction" and "Business of the Meeting – Approval of Amendment to the Articles".

Our head and registered office is located at 1255 Bay Street, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario, M5R 2A9. Our fiscal year-end is December 31.

Intercorporate Relationships

We have the following principal subsidiaries which have total assets or revenues which exceed 10% of our total consolidated assets or revenues as at and for the year ended December 31, 2023:

Name of subsidiary	Percentage of voting securities owned	Jurisdiction of incorporation, continuance, formation or organization
FirstService CAM Holdings, Inc.	100.0%	Delaware
FirstService Residential, Inc.	100.0%	Delaware
FirstService Residential Florida, Inc.	100.0%	Florida
FirstService Restoration, Inc.	100.0%	Delaware
FirstService Roofing Holdings, Inc.	90.4%	Delaware
Bellwether FOS Holdco, Inc.	89.1%	Delaware
FirstOnSite USA Holdings, Inc.	100.0%	Delaware
Interstate Restoration LLC	100.0%	Colorado
FS Brands, Inc.	97.2%	Delaware
Century Fire Holdings, LLC	94.9%	Delaware

The voting securities of the above noted subsidiaries not controlled by FirstService are owned by operating management of each respective subsidiary. The above table does not include all of the subsidiaries of FirstService. The assets and revenues of our unnamed subsidiaries did not exceed 20% of our total consolidated assets or total consolidated revenues as at and for the year ended December 31, 2023.

General development of the business

FirstService is the North American leader in residential property management and other essential property services to residential and commercial customers. We began independent operations on June 1, 2015 following the completion of the Spin-off, which included, among other things, the transfer to us of the FirstService Residential and FirstService Brands divisions of Old FSV, and the assets and liabilities referable thereto, as operated by Old FSV prior to June 1, 2015. Prior to completion of the Spin-off, we did not carry on any active business and did not issue any shares.

History

The business lines of FirstService were part of the foundation of our predecessor company, Old FSV, originally launched in 1989 by Jay S. Hennick, our founder and Chairman, with a Toronto-based commercial swimming pool and recreational facility management business which he founded as a teenager in 1972. Over the past 30 years, the businesses of FirstService have grown their operations "one step at a time" both through internal growth and acquisitions. In addition to the Spin-off, the following chart summarizes key milestones in the evolution of the Company:

Business description

FirstService is a North American leader in the essential outsourced property services sector, serving its customers through two operating divisions: FirstService Residential, North America's largest manager of residential communities, and FirstService Brands, one of North America's largest providers of essential property services delivered through individually branded company-owned operations and franchise systems. With the acquisition of First Onsite Restoration in 2019, FirstService Brands significantly expanded its scale and capabilities in commercial and large loss property restoration in North America. See "– FirstService Brands Segment – First Onsite Restoration". At the end of 2023, with the acquisition of Roofing Corp of America, FirstService Brands added commercial roofing services to its repair, maintenance and restoration capabilities. See "– FirstService Brands Segment – Roofing Corp of America".

FirstService Residential and FirstService Brands both rely on the same operational foundations for success – a core competency in managing and growing market-leading, value-added outsourced essential property services businesses; a focus on client service excellence; economies of scale that are leveraged wherever possible to create more value for clients; and strong brand recognition. These pillars provide our businesses with competitive advantages that are difficult to replicate. Our two business lines also have similar highly attractive financial profiles, including a high proportion of recurring revenue streams, low capital expenditure and working capital requirements, high free cash flow generation, and significant financial strength to grow both organically and through consolidation of highly fragmented industries.

We conduct our business and report our financial performance through two operating segments as shown below:

The following charts summarize the revenues, operating earnings and adjusted EBITDA of our two operating segments over the past two fiscal years.

FirstService Residential Segment

FirstService Residential is North America's largest manager of private residential communities, offering a full range of services across multiple geographies to a wide variety of clients, including condominiums (high and low-rise), co-operatives, homeowner associations, master-planned communities, active adult and lifestyle communities, and a variety of other residential developments governed by common interest or multi-unit residential community associations. Our approximately 20,000 employees in approximately 100 offices across 25 U.S. states and 3 Canadian provinces manage over 9,000 communities, representing more than 4 million residents. Our operational and client coverage footprint is extensive, with a presence in major markets that constitute over 70% of the North American population.

Typically, owners of residential units within these communities are required to pay monthly or quarterly fees to cover all expenses to operate and maintain the common areas of the communities. Resident owners elect volunteer homeowners to serve on a board of directors to oversee the operations of the community association. Historically, decision-making for the day-to-day operations of the communities was delegated to these volunteer board members, although, increasingly, these boards outsource this responsibility to professional property management companies like FirstService Residential.

There are two types of professional property management companies within the industry – traditional or full-service:

- Traditional property management: Traditional property managers focus principally on administrative and governance property management functions on behalf of community association clients, including advising homeowner boards on matters relating to the operation of their communities, collection of monthly maintenance fees, sourcing and payments to suppliers, financial statement preparation, and outsourcing of support services.

- Full service property management: Full service property managers provide all of the traditional functions, plus a range of ancillary services including, among other things, on-site staffing (in areas such as building engineering and maintenance, full-service amenity management, security and concierge/front desk), banking and insurance products, energy conservation and management solutions, and resale processing services.

Only a small number of industry participants have the expertise and capital to provide full-service property management services comparable to FirstService Residential. We have the scale, highly recognized brand, geographic footprint, resources, operating expertise and innovation to deliver a full-service offering. We combine our advantages of size and national presence with a local touch and dedication focusing on service excellence, which solidifies our client relationships and market-leading reputation.

As a full-service property manager, FirstService Residential provides a full range of ancillary services, including on-site staffing for building engineering and maintenance, full-service swimming pool and amenity management, security and concierge/front desk. In most markets, we also provide non-labour, higher margin fee-based ancillary products and services, including financial services (cash management, other banking transaction-related services, and specialized property insurance brokerage), energy management solutions and advisory services, and resale processing services, utilizing the scale of our operations to economically benefit clients.

1 Adjusted EBITDA is a financial measure that is not calculated in accordance with GAAP. For a reconciliation of this and other non-GAAP financial measures, see "Reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures" in this AIF.

We generally provide residential property management and recurring ancillary services under contract, with a fixed monthly fee. These contracts typically range in duration from one to three years, yet are generally cancellable by either party with 30 to 90 days' notice. Historically, a significant proportion of our revenue is recurring due to the nature of our contracts, which have a mid-90% retention rate, and therefore have a long-term tenure.

FirstService Brands Segment

FirstService Brands is a leading North American operator and provider of essential property services to residential and commercial customers. The principal brands in this division include First Onsite Restoration, Paul Davis Restoration, Roofing Corp of America, Century Fire Protection, California Closets, CertaPro Painters, Floor Coverings International, and Pillar to Post Home Inspectors.

Franchised Operations

We own and operate five franchise networks as follows:

(i) Paul Davis Restoration is a franchisor of residential and light commercial restoration services serving the insurance industry in the United States and Canada through 353 franchises. Paul Davis provides full service water, fire and mold cleanup, construction rebuild and restoration services for property damaged by natural or man-made disasters. The franchised property services industry is highly fragmented, consisting principally of a large number of smaller, single-service or single-concept companies. Due to the large size of the overall market for these services, dominant market share is not considered necessary for becoming a major player in the industry. However, because of the low barriers to entry in this segment, we believe that brand name recognition among consumers is a critical factor in achieving long-term success in the businesses we operate.

Franchise businesses are subject to U.S. Federal Trade Commission regulations and state and provincial laws that regulate the offering and sale of franchises. Presently, we are authorized to sell franchises in 50 U.S. states, in all Canadian provinces and in several other countries around the world. In all jurisdictions, we endeavor to have our franchises meet or exceed regulatory standards.

Company-Owned Operations

FirstService Brands owns 22 California Closets operations, 15 Paul Davis Restoration operations and two CertaPro Painters operations in major metropolitan markets in the United States and Canada. The California Closets, Paul Davis Restoration and CertaPro Painters operations were acquired from franchisees with the goal of accelerating revenue growth and realizing operating margin expansion potential.

Roofing Corp of America

In December 2023, we completed the acquisition of Roofing Corp of America, the fifth largest commercial roofing firm in North America. The acquisition added a key service capability to FirstService's portfolio of leading essential property services brands and, in particular, brought a highly complementary strategic fit to our operations at First Onsite Restoration and Paul Davis Restoration. Headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, Roofing Corp of America delivers a wide range of end-to-end roofing services, including re-roofing, repair and maintenance, and new roof installations, to building owners, property and facility managers, homeowners' associations, and general contractors. Roofing Corp of America operates under ten local brands from 16 regional branch locations across 11 U.S. states, spanning the Sun Belt, Mid-Atlantic, Midwest and West regions and employs more than 900 highly trained professionals.

Seasonality

Certain segments of the Company's operations are subject to seasonal variations. This seasonality results in variations in quarterly revenues and operating margins. Variations can also be caused by acquisitions or dispositions, which alter the consolidated service mix.

Trademarks

Our trademarks are important for the advertising and brand awareness of all of our businesses and franchises. We take precautions to defend the value of our trademarks by maintaining legal registrations and by litigating against alleged infringements, if necessary.

The FirstService Residential operating division operates under the FirstService Residential trademark. This common branding creates a unified North American market presence signifying our market leadership, to showcase our commitment to service excellence and to leverage our strengths to the benefit of current and future clients. No value has been ascribed to the FirstService Residential trademark in our consolidated financial statements.

In our FirstService Brands division, our Century Fire business, Roofing Corp of America business and two franchise systems – California Closets and Paul Davis Restoration – have trademarks to which value has been ascribed in our consolidated financial statements. The value of these trademarks is derived from the recognition they enjoy among the target audiences for the respective property services. These trademarks have been in existence for many years, and their prominence among consumers has grown over time through the addition of locations and/or franchisees and the ongoing marketing programs conducted by franchisees and FirstService. No value has been ascribed to the First Onsite trademark in our consolidated financial statements.

Growth strategy

We maintain leadership positions in the residential property management and residential and commercial property services industries, offering a full complement of services to a wide range of customers. We have an established track record of expanding our business through both organic and acquisition growth. Our growth plan involves five primary drivers: (i) capitalizing on our scale advantages to win new business; (ii) continuing to emphasize retention of our existing customer base, and leveraging referrals from past and existing customers; (iii) continuing to expand our ancillary services; (iv) realizing operational efficiencies; and (v) selectively pursuing strategic acquisitions.

Competition

We compete in the essential property services industry as one of the largest providers of such services to residential and commercial customers in North America.

FirstService Residential is the North American leader in residential property management with an estimated 6% market share. We operate in a highly fragmented market, with an estimated 9,000 local and regional management companies across North America. Only a relatively small number of our competitors are able to deliver the expertise and investment capital to compete broadly on a professional platform. Our primary competitors are smaller independent regional players. Our competitive position varies across geographies, property types, and services provided.

The essential property services industry in which FirstService Brands participates is highly fragmented and consists predominantly of small “mom & pop” businesses and, for restoration, emergency response, roofing and related services, a few national players. Each of our service lines within FirstService Brands has professionalized its business category, and has a leading position within each market served. FirstService Brands competes primarily with local, regional and family-owned and operated enterprises or franchise businesses.

Environmental, social and governance

Oversight

The board of directors of FirstService (the “Board”) oversees and monitors FirstService’s policies and practices related to its environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) program, including management of climate-related risks and opportunities, and alignment of the ESG strategy with FirstService’s overall business strategy. The Board satisfies itself that FirstService has developed and implemented appropriate ESG standards in the conduct of its operations. At least annually, the Board verifies FirstService’s compliance with any applicable legal and regulatory requirements related to ESG disclosure and reviews any ESG report prepared by FirstService. For more detailed information on FirstService’s ESG initiatives, please visit FirstService’s website at www.firstservice.com.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board contributes to the Board’s oversight of FirstService’s ESG program through: (i) the review, on a periodic basis, of FirstService’s governance practices in relation to its ESG and climate programs, policies and practices; (ii) the review of FirstService’s public disclosure related to its ESG and climate programs, policies and practices and any ESG report prepared by FirstService; (iii) the review annually of the Board’s expertise in ESG matters and ensuring appropriate ESG education is provided to the Board members; (iv) ensuring ESG and diversity goals are considered in Board recruitment; (v) ensuring that responsibility for oversight of any specific ESG-related matters, as appropriate, are integrated into committee mandates and the Board mandate; (vi) monitoring ESG matters of interest to shareholders and other FirstService stakeholders and reviewing any shareholder proposals on ESG; and (vii) monitoring FirstService brand and FirstService social responsibility initiatives, diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives and community giving and philanthropic programs.

To ensure the Board and management have, or have access to, the competencies needed to engage on ESG and climate matters, the members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, as well as other Board members attended a substantial ESG and climate related training/workshop in January 2024 dealing with ESG trends, key climate concepts relevant for capital markets, ESG disclosure frameworks and ESG governance best practices.

ESG Materiality Assessment

As a foundation for FirstService's ESG strategy and disclosure, in 2023 FirstService undertook its first ESG materiality assessment to identify, assess and prioritize the ESG factors considered to have the greatest potential to impact company value over the short, medium, and long term. In developing the ESG materiality assessment, FirstService considered leading ESG reporting frameworks, including the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB), Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) and Recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD).

FirstService identified the following core factors that present significant opportunities for FirstService and are a focus for its ESG approach:

- Human Capital Management: FirstService's people are its greatest asset. FirstService strives to foster a strong culture that embraces diversity and inclusion, attracts those who share its values and offers opportunities to grow within the organization.

- Health & Safety: Protecting FirstService team members, clients, and the communities in which FirstService operates through strong health and safety management is critical to its success.

- Climate Change: As a service provider, FirstService's exposure to climate risk is comparatively less than real estate property owners. At the same time, there are significant opportunities for FirstService to support clients seeking to enhance energy efficiency or recover from the impacts of acute weather events.

Social Purpose Initiative

FirstService has long believed in the importance of giving back to its people, its community, and the environment. Since 2018, FirstService has put this belief into action through its Social Purpose initiative, which was launched to create greater awareness and visibility for the many ways that FirstService employees give back. Throughout the year, team members are encouraged to join FirstService's mission to #FirstServeOthers by engaging in initiatives and activities in support of our people, our community, and our environment. The 2023 highlights from FirstService's Social Purpose initiative are detailed on FirstService's website at www.firstservice.com.

Non-controlling interests

We own a majority interest in substantially all of our operations, while operating management of each non-wholly-owned subsidiary owns the remaining shares. This structure was designed to maintain control at FirstService while providing significant risks and rewards of equity ownership to management at the operating businesses. In almost all cases, we have the right to "call" management's shares, usually payable at our option with any combination of common shares of FirstService (the "Common Shares") or cash. We may also be obligated to acquire certain of these non-controlling interests in the event of death, disability or cessation of employment or if the shares are "put" by the holder, subject to annual limitations on these puts imposed by the relevant shareholder agreements. These arrangements provide significant flexibility to us in connection with management succession planning and shareholder liquidity matters.

Dividends and dividend policy

Dividend policy

Our board of directors has adopted a dividend policy pursuant to which we intend to make quarterly cash dividends to holders of Common Shares of record at the close of business on the last business day of each calendar quarter. The current quarterly dividend rate is $0.25 per Common Share (a rate of $1.00 per annum), which has increased several times since the Spin-off in 2015 when the quarterly dividend rate was $0.10 per Common Share (a rate of $0.40 per annum). Each quarterly dividend is paid within 30 days after the applicable record date. For the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and any similar provincial legislation, all dividends on the Common Shares will be eligible dividends unless indicated otherwise.

The terms of our dividend policy remain, among other things, at the discretion of our board of directors. Future dividends on the Common Shares, if any, will depend on the results of our operations, cash requirements, financial condition, contractual restrictions, business opportunities, provisions of applicable law and other relevant factors. Under the terms of our second amended and restated credit agreement dated as of February 17, 2022 (the "Credit Agreement"), our amended and restated note and guarantee agreement (the "Senior Note Agreement") governing our senior notes (the "Senior Notes"), our master note agreement dated as of September 29, 2022 (the "NYL Note Agreement") with NYL Investors LLC for private placement issuances of up to US$150 million of senior unsecured notes ("NYL Notes") and our note purchase and private shelf agreement dated as of September 29, 2022 (the "Prudential Note Agreement") with PGIM Private Capital for private placement issuances of up to US$300 million of senior unsecured notes ("Prudential Notes"), we are not permitted to pay dividends, whether in cash or in specie, in the circumstances of an event of default thereunder occurring and continuing or an event of default occurring as a consequence thereof. See "Material contracts" and "Risk factors" below.

Dividend history

The aggregate cash dividends declared per Common Share for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021 were US$0.90, US$0.81 and US$0.73, respectively.

Reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures

In this AIF, we make reference to "adjusted EBITDA" and "adjusted EPS," which are financial measures that are not calculated in accordance with GAAP.

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net earnings, adjusted to exclude: (i) income tax; (ii) other expense (income); (iii) interest expense; (iv) depreciation and amortization; (v) acquisition-related items; and (vi) stock-based compensation expense. The Company uses adjusted EBITDA to evaluate its own operating performance and its ability to service debt, as well as an integral part of its planning and reporting systems. Additionally, this measure is used in conjunction with discounted cash flow models to determine the Company's overall enterprise valuation and to evaluate acquisition targets. Adjusted EBITDA is presented as a supplemental measure because the Company believes such measure is useful to investors as a reasonable indicator of operating performance because of the low capital intensity of its service operations. The Company believes this measure is a financial metric used by many investors to compare companies, especially in the services industry. This measure is not a recognized measure of financial performance under GAAP in the United States, and should not be considered as a substitute for operating earnings, net earnings from operations or cash flow from operating activities, as determined in accordance with GAAP. The Company's method of calculating adjusted EBITDA may differ from other issuers and accordingly, this measure may not be comparable to measures used by other issuers. A reconciliation of net earnings (loss) from operations to adjusted EBITDA appears below.

(1) Corporate costs represent corporate overhead expenses not directly attributable to reportable segments and are therefore unallocated with segment operating earnings (loss) and Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EPS is defined as diluted net earnings (loss) per share, adjusted for the effect, after income tax, of: (i) the non-controlling interest redemption increment; (ii) acquisition-related items; (iii) amortization of intangible assets recognized in connection with acquisitions; and (iv) stock-based compensation expense. The Company believes this measure is useful to investors because it provides a supplemental way to understand the underlying operating performance of the Company and enhances the comparability of operating results from period to period. Adjusted EPS is not a recognized measure of financial performance under GAAP, and should not be considered as a substitute for diluted net earnings per Common Share from operations, as determined in accordance with GAAP. The Company's method of calculating this non-GAAP measure may differ from other issuers and, accordingly, this measure may not be comparable to measures used by other issuers. A reconciliation of diluted net earnings (loss) per Common Share from operations to adjusted EPS appears below.

We believe that the presentation of adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EPS, which are non-GAAP financial measures, provides important supplemental information to management and investors regarding financial and business trends relating to the Company's financial condition and results of operations. Non-GAAP financial measures do not have any standardized meaning and are therefore unlikely to be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. We use these non-GAAP financial measures to assist management and investors in understanding our operating performance, our ability to service debt, to assist in determining our overall enterprise valuation and to evaluate acquisition targets, and such measures are an integral part of our planning and reporting systems. We provide non-GAAP financial measures because we believe such measures are useful to investors as a reasonable indicator of our operating performance given the low capital intensity of our service operations and provide a supplemental way to understand our underlying operating performance that enhances the comparability of operating results from period to period, and such measures are commonly used by many investors to compare companies, especially in the services industry. We have also chosen to provide such measures to investors so they can analyze our operating results in the same way that management does and use such measures in their assessment of our core business and valuation. Investors are cautioned that non-GAAP financial measures should not be relied upon as a substitute for financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP. Non-GAAP financial measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all of the costs or benefits associated with the operations of our business as determined in accordance with GAAP. As a result, investors should not consider these measures in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP.

Risk factors

Readers should carefully consider the following risks, as well as the other information contained in this AIF and our management's discussion and analysis for the year ended December 31, 2023. If any of the following risks actually occurs, our business could be materially harmed. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones we face. Additional risks and uncertainties, including those of which we are currently unaware or we currently deem immaterial, may also adversely affect our business, and past performance is no guarantee of future performance.

Risks relating to our Business

Public health crises, and its related impact on global, regional and local economic conditions, and in particular its impact on client demand for our services, our ability to deliver services and ensure the health and productivity of our employees

FirstService's business, operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected by the outbreak of epidemics or pandemics or other health crises beyond our control. Many governments may declare that an outbreak, or one or more waves or an outbreak, constitutes an emergency in their jurisdictions. Reactions to the spread of an outbreak, or the worsening of an outbreak from time to time, may lead to, among other things, significant restrictions on travel, business closures, quarantines, social distancing and other containment measures and a general reduction in consumer activity. While these effects may be temporary, the duration of any business disruptions and related financial impact cannot be reasonably estimated, and may be instituted, terminated and re-instituted from time to time as an outbreak worsens, waves of an outbreak occur or new variants of the virus arise from time to time.

Such public health crises can also result in volatility and disruptions in the supply and demand for various products and services (including the products and services offered by FirstService), global supply chains and financial markets, as well as declining trade and market sentiment and reduced mobility of people, all of which could affect interest rates, credit ratings, credit risk and inflation. The risks to FirstService of such public health crises also include risks to employee health and safety and a slowdown or temporary suspension of operations in geographic locations impacted by an outbreak.

Economic conditions, especially as they relate to credit conditions and consumer spending and demand for managed residential property

During periods of economic slowdown or contraction, our business is impacted directly. Consumer spending directly impacts our FirstService Brands operations businesses because as consumers spend less on property services, our revenues decline. These factors could also negatively impact the timing or the ultimate collection of accounts receivable, which would negatively impact our operating revenues, profitability and cash flow.

Residential real estate property values, resale rates and general conditions of financial liquidity for real estate transactions

We provide various services at residential properties in our FirstService Residential and FirstService Brands operating divisions. Property values and consumer confidence are strongly correlated with demand for our services, including painting, closet installation, general maintenance, collections and resale processing.

Extreme weather conditions impacting demand for our services or our ability to perform those services

Natural disasters, such as hurricanes, can have a direct impact in our FirstService Residential and FirstService Brands operations. These events damage property, which require various services that our companies offer, such as restoration and roofing. They may also harm our employees, facilities and franchisees, resulting in an inability to serve clients and generate revenues.

Economic deterioration impacting our ability to recover goodwill and other intangible assets
Expectations of future earnings drive the recoverability of goodwill and other intangible assets, which are tested, at least, on an annual basis. A future deterioration of operating performance may necessitate additional non-cash impairment charges.

A decline in our ability to generate cash from our businesses to fund future acquisitions and meet our debt obligations
We rely on our businesses to generate the necessary cash to service our financial obligations. As at December 31, 2023, we had $1,182.1 million of debt outstanding ($994.5 million net of cash) that, on December 31, 2023, was required to be refinanced or repaid over the next 3 years. We also had $155 million of available un-drawn credit at December 31, 2023. To date, we have been able to meet all of our debt obligations, however with a decline in performance in some of our businesses, surplus cash may not be available to be remitted which may result in the inability to meet a debt repayment.

An important component of our growth strategy is strategic and selective acquisitions, which we tend to complete with cash. Although we have a revolving credit facility available to us under the Credit Agreement and potential future private placement issuances of NYL Notes and/or Prudential Notes under the NYL Note Agreement and Prudential Note Agreement, respectively, as noted elsewhere in this AIF, we also rely on surplus cash on hand to fund acquisitions. If cash on hand is not available and our revolving credit facility is fully utilized, then future acquisitions may not be possible.

The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates in relation to the U.S. dollar on our Canadian dollar denominated revenues and expenses
We generate approximately 13% of our revenues outside the United States. Consequently, a portion of our consolidated results are impacted directly by fluctuations in the relative strength of the U.S. dollar versus the Canadian dollar currency. In the future, we may acquire additional international operations. In such event, the impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations may increase.

Competition in the markets served by FirstService
We operate in highly competitive markets. Changes in the source and intensity of competition in the markets served by us impact the demand for our services and may result in additional pricing pressures. The relatively low capital cost of entry to certain of our businesses has led to strong competitive markets, including regional and local owner-operated companies. Regional and local competitors operating in a limited geographic area may have lower labour, benefits and overhead costs. The principal methods of competition in our businesses include name recognition, quality and speed of service, pricing, customer satisfaction and reputation. No assurance can be given that we will be able to compete successfully against current or future competitors and that the competitive pressures that we face will not result in reduced market share or negatively impact our financial performance.

Labour shortages or increases in wage and benefit costs
As a services company, our primary asset is the human capital that comprises our workforce. In particular, we rely on property managers, franchisees and other skilled staff to generate revenues. A shortage, or increase in wage and benefit costs, of this human capital could reduce our revenues and profitability.

The effects of changes in interest rates on our cost of borrowing
As at December 31, 2023, we had $1,045.5 million of debt at variable interest rates. As a result, changes in base rates such as SOFR affect our interest expense as these base rates fluctuate. On our fixed rate debt, we have from time-to-time entered into fixed-for-floating interest rate swaps, where advantageous, to convert the fixed interest payments to floating. These swaps are intended to manage interest rate sensitivity and reduce overall interest costs. The Company has two interest rate swaps in place to exchange the floating interest rate on $182.5 million of debt total under its Credit Agreement for a fixed rate.

A decline in our performance impacting our continued compliance with the financial covenants under our debt agreements, or our ability to negotiate a waiver of certain covenants with our lenders

A prolonged decline in our earnings performance could result in a non-compliance with one or more financial covenants under the Credit Agreement, Senior Note Agreement, NYL Note Agreement and/or Prudential Note Agreement. In addition, FirstService's degree of leverage from time to time could have adverse consequences for FirstService, including: limiting our ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures, debt service requirements, acquisitions and associated contingent purchase consideration, and/or for general corporate purposes; restricting our flexibility and discretion to operate our business; limiting our ability to declare dividends on the Common Shares; having to dedicate a portion of our cash flows from operations to the payment of interest on our existing indebtedness and not having such cash flows available for other purposes, including operations, capital expenditures, acquisitions and other future business opportunities; exposing us to increased interest expense on borrowings; limiting our ability to adjust to changing market conditions; placing us at a competitive disadvantage compared to its competitors that have less debt; making us vulnerable in a downturn in general economic conditions; and making us unable to make capital expenditures that are important to our growth and strategies. In the event that we are unable to make principal or interest payments on our indebtedness outstanding under the Credit Agreement or our other indebtedness as required, we could be in default and such indebtedness could be accelerated, and we may not be able to repay or refinance such indebtedness. Any such default and acceleration could require us to raise additional equity capital (resulting in dilution) or take on additional indebtedness, which could have more onerous terms than our existing indebtedness, or to sell assets or take other actions that could adversely affect our business. Furthermore, a lender, if unpaid, may exercise their secured creditor rights.

Unexpected increases in operating costs, such as insurance, workers' compensation, health care and fuel prices

As a services company, the costs of providing services to our customers can fluctuate. Certain operating expenses are based on market rates which we cannot control and, absent an offsetting price increase in our services, have a direct impact on our operating margins.

Changes in the frequency or severity of insurance incidents relative to our historical experience

Adverse changes in claims experience could increase our insurance costs and/or increase the risk of being unable to renew insurance coverage at our operations. In each of our operating segments, we effectively self-insure certain risks, with a layer of third-party insurance for catastrophic claims. An increase in the frequency or severity of claims in these areas could materially affect our financial position and results of operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain insurance coverage on favourable economic terms in the future.

A decline in our ability to make acquisitions at reasonable prices and successfully integrate acquired operations, no assurance of future performance by acquired businesses and potential liabilities associated with acquisitions

As an acquisitive organization, we actively pursue acquisitions to expand our footprint and services offerings as well as supplement existing businesses. Not only does our acquisition strategy depend on the continued availability of suitable targets, it also depends on the ability to negotiate favorable terms and conditions. Another risk with acquisitions is the ability to integrate the acquired business into an existing service line.

In addition, the historic and current performance of a business we acquire may not be indicative of success in future periods. A business we acquire may not perform as well as we anticipate or we may incur unanticipated costs and expenses relating to its operations. The future performance of a business we acquire may be influenced by unpredictable events, economic downturns, regulatory changes and other factors beyond the control of FirstService. There is no assurance that revenues generated from a business we acquire will increase in future years. As a result of any one or more of these factors, the operations and financial performance of a business we acquire may be negatively affected, which could materially and adversely affect FirstService's financial results.

In relation to acquisitions we make, often times the liabilities of the acquired business remained with the acquired legal entity or entities. There may be liabilities that FirstService fail to discover or are unable to quantify accurately or at all in a due diligence review of an acquisition conducted prior to completing the acquisition. Although FirstService has in the past in select circumstances obtained buyer-side representation and warranty insurance in respect of an acquisition and has certain limited indemnification rights, these may be insufficient to satisfy any losses resulting from such liabilities.

Changes in laws, regulations and government policies at the federal, state/provincial or local level may adversely impact our businesses
Changes in laws and regulation at the different jurisdictional levels can have a direct effect on our operations. It is difficult to predict the future impact of a change in legislative and regulatory requirements affecting our businesses. The laws and regulations applicable to our businesses will likely change in the future and affect our operations and financial performance. In addition, if we were to fail to comply with any applicable law or regulation, we could be subject to substantial fines or damages, be involved in litigation, suffer losses to our reputation and suffer the loss of licenses or penalties that may affect how our business is operated, which, in turn, would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks related to liability for employee acts or omissions, or installation/system failure, in our fire protection businesses
The nature of the fire protection services we provide exposes us to the risks that we may be held liable for employee acts or omissions or installation/system failures. In an attempt to reduce this risk, our installation, service and/or maintenance agreements and other contracts contain provisions limiting our liability in such circumstances, and we typically maintain liability insurance to mitigate such risk. However, in the event of litigation, it is possible that contract limitations may be deemed not applicable or unenforceable, that our insurance coverage is not adequate, or that insurance carriers deny coverage of our claims. As a result, such employee acts or omissions or installation/system failures could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Risks arising from any regulatory review and litigation
While management is not currently aware of any formal regulatory reviews or investigations, the commencement of any such reviews or investigations may result in the diversion of significant management attention and resources and, if securities or other regulators determine that a violation of securities or other laws may have occurred, or has occurred, the Company or its officers and directors may receive notices regarding potential enforcement action or prosecution and could be subject to civil or criminal penalties or other remedies. For example, the Company or its officers could be required to pay substantial damages, fines or other penalties, the regulators could seek an injunction against the Company or seek to ban an officer or director of the Company from acting as such, any of which actions would have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Risks associated with intellectual property and other proprietary rights that are material to our business
Our ability to compete effectively depends in part on our rights to service marks, trademarks, trade names and other intellectual property rights we own or license. We have not sought to register every one of our marks in every jurisdiction in which they are used. Furthermore, because of the differences in foreign trademark, patent and other intellectual property or proprietary rights laws, we may not receive the same protection in other jurisdictions as we would in Canada or the United States. If we are unable to protect our proprietary information and brand names, we could suffer a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations. Litigation may be necessary to enforce our intellectual property rights and protect our proprietary information, or to defend against claims by third parties that our products or services infringe their intellectual property rights. Any litigation or claims brought by or against us could result in substantial costs and diversion of our resources. A successful claim of trademark, patent or other intellectual property infringement against us, or any other successful challenge to the use of our intellectual property, could subject us to damages or prevent us from providing certain services under our recognized brand names, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Disruptions or security failures in our information technology systems
Our information technology systems facilitate our ability to monitor, operate and control our operations. While we have disaster recovery plans in place, any disruption in these plans or the failure of our information technology systems to operate as expected could, depending on the magnitude of the problem, adversely affect our operating results by limiting, among other things, our capacity to monitor, operate and control our operations effectively. In addition, because our systems contain information about individuals and businesses, our failure to maintain the security of the data we hold, whether the result of our own error or the malfeasance or errors of others, could harm our reputation or give rise to legal liabilities relating to violations of privacy laws or otherwise, which may lead to lower revenues, increased costs and other material adverse effects on our results of operations.

Political conditions, including any outbreak or escalation of terrorism or hostilities and the impact thereof on our business
Political events and situations can have an effect on the Company's operations. Events could occur that may hamper our ability to manage operations, extract cash and implement FirstService policies in certain regions.

Risks relating to our Common Shares

Volatility of market price of the Common Shares
The market price of the Common Shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations in response to numerous factors, many of which are beyond our control, including the following:

- actual or anticipated fluctuations in our annual or quarterly results of operations;
- changes in estimates of future results of operations by us or by securities research analysts;
- changes in the economic performance or market valuations of other companies that investors deem comparable to us;
- the addition or departure of our executive officers or other key personnel;
- litigation or regulatory action against us;
- issuances or expected issuances of additional Common Shares or other forms of our securities;
- changes in applicable laws and regulations, including tax laws, or changes in the manner in which those laws are applied;
- significant acquisitions or business combinations, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by or involving us or our competitors; and
- news reports relating to the conditions in the economy in general and/or trends, concerns or competitive developments, regulatory changes and other related issues in our industry.

The volatility may affect the ability of holders of Common Shares to sell the Common Shares at an advantageous price.

Financial markets have, at times, experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of securities of companies and that have, in many cases, been unrelated to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. Accordingly, the market price of the Common Shares may decline even if our operating results, underlying asset values or prospects have not changed. Additionally, these factors, as well as other related factors, may cause decreases in asset values that are deemed to be other than temporary, which may result in impairment losses. As well, certain institutional investors may base their investment decisions on consideration of our environmental, governance and social practices and performance against such institutions' respective investment guidelines and criteria, and failure to meet such criteria may result in a limited or no investment in the Common Shares by those institutions, which could adversely affect the trading price of the Common Shares. There can be no assurance that fluctuations in price and volume will not occur. If such increased levels of volatility and market turmoil occur, our operations could be adversely impacted and the trading price of the Common Shares may be adversely affected.

A decline in our performance impacting our ability to pay dividends on Common Shares
Although we intend to make cash dividends to shareholders in accordance with our existing dividend policy, these dividends are not assured. Future dividends on the Common Shares will depend on our results of operations, financial condition, capital requirements, general business conditions and other factors that our board of directors may deem relevant. Additionally, under the Credit Agreement, the Senior Note Agreement, the NYL Note Agreement and Prudential Note Agreement, we are not permitted to pay dividends, whether in cash or in specie, in the circumstances of an event of default thereunder occurring and continuing or an event of default occurring as a consequence thereof. The market value of the Common Shares may deteriorate if we are unable to pay dividends pursuant to our existing dividend policy in the future.

Potential dilution
We are authorized to issue an unlimited number of Common Shares for consideration and terms and conditions as established by our board of directors, in many cases, without any requirement for explicit shareholder approval, and shareholders have no pre-emptive rights in connection with such further issuances. We may issue additional Common Shares in share offerings (including through the sale of securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares) and pursuant to the exercise of options under our Option Plan. We cannot predict the size of future issuances of Common Shares or the effect that future issuances and sales of Common Shares will have on the market price of the Common Shares. Issuances of a substantial number of additional Common Shares, or the perception that such issuances could occur, may adversely affect prevailing market prices for the Common Shares. With any additional issuance of Common Shares, holders of Common Shares will suffer dilution and we may experience dilution in our earnings per share.

Foreign private issuer

We are a "foreign private issuer", as such term is defined in Rule 405 under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and are permitted, under a multijurisdictional disclosure system adopted by the United States and Canada, to prepare our disclosure documents filed under the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("U.S. Exchange Act"), in accordance with Canadian disclosure requirements. Under the U.S. Exchange Act, we are subject to reporting obligations that, in certain respects, are less detailed and less frequent than those of U.S. domestic reporting companies. As a result, we do not file the same reports that a U.S. domestic issuer would file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), although we are required to file or furnish to the SEC the continuous disclosure documents that we are required to file in Canada under Canadian securities laws. In addition, our officers, directors, and principal shareholders are exempt from the reporting and short swing profit liability provisions of Section 16 of the U.S. Exchange Act. Therefore, our shareholders may not know on as timely a basis when our officers, directors and principal shareholders purchase or sell shares, as the reporting deadlines under the corresponding Canadian insider reporting requirements are generally longer.

As a foreign private issuer, we are exempt from the rules and regulations under the U.S. Exchange Act related to the furnishing and content of proxy statements. We are also exempt from Regulation FD, which prohibits issuers from making selective disclosures of material non-public information. While we will comply with the corresponding requirements relating to proxy statements and disclosure of material non-public information under Canadian securities laws, these requirements differ from those under the U.S. Exchange Act and Regulation FD, and shareholders should not expect to receive the same information at the same time as such information is provided by U.S. domestic companies.

In addition, as a foreign private issuer, we have the option to follow certain Canadian corporate governance practices, except to the extent that such laws would be contrary to U.S. securities laws, and provided that we disclose the requirements we are not following and describe the Canadian practices we follow instead. We currently rely on this exemption with respect to requirements regarding the quorum for any meeting of our shareholders, the requirement to obtain shareholder approval prior to an issuance of securities in certain circumstances and certain responsibilities of the Executive Compensation Committee of our board of directors. We may in the future elect to follow home country practices in Canada with regard to other matters. As a result, our shareholders may not have the same protections afforded to shareholders of U.S. domestic companies that are subject to all corporate governance requirements and Nasdaq corporate governance listing standards.

The determination of foreign private issuer status is made annually on the last business day of an issuer's most recently completed second fiscal quarter. We would lose our foreign private issuer status if, for example, more than 50% of our Common Shares are directly or indirectly held by residents of the United States and we fail to meet additional requirements necessary to maintain our foreign private issuer status. If we lose our foreign private issuer status on this date, we will be required to file with the SEC periodic reports and registration statements on U.S. domestic issuer forms, which are more detailed and extensive than the forms available to a foreign private issuer. We will also have to mandatorily comply with U.S. federal proxy requirements, and our officers, directors and principal shareholders will become subject to the short-swing profit disclosure and recovery provisions of Section 16 of the U.S. Exchange Act. In addition, we will lose our ability to rely upon exemptions from certain corporate governance requirements under the Nasdaq listing rules. As a U.S. listed public company that is not a foreign private issuer, we will incur significant additional legal, accounting and other expenses that we will not incur as a foreign private issuer, and accounting, reporting and other expenses in order to maintain a listing on a U.S. securities exchange.

Interest of management and others in material transactions

Except as described below or elsewhere in this AIF, no director of FirstService, executive officer of FirstService, or person or company that beneficially owns, or controls or directs more than 10% of any class or series of voting securities of FirstService, or any associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing persons, has or has had any material interest in any transaction within the last three years, or during the current year, that has materially affected or is reasonably expected to materially affect FirstService or any of its subsidiaries.

To the knowledge of the directors and executive officers of FirstService, no person beneficially owns, or controls or directs, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the issued and outstanding Common Shares.

Material contracts

The only contracts that can reasonably be regarded as material to us, other than contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business, are as follows:

(a) Credit Facility: On February 17, 2022, we entered into the Credit Agreement with a syndicate of lenders. The Credit Agreement replaced our prior credit agreement which had been in effect since June 21, 2019. The Credit Agreement provides for a committed multi-currency revolving credit facility of US$1 billion on an unsecured basis. The Credit Agreement has a term ending on February 17, 2027, bears interest at 0.20% to 2.50% over floating reference rates, depending on certain leverage ratios. The Credit Agreement replaced our previous US$450 million revolving credit facility and US$440 million term loan (drawn in a single advance) that were set to mature in January 2023 and June 2024, respectively. A portion of the revolving credit facility under the Credit Agreement was used to repay the remaining term loan balance of US$407 million under the prior credit agreement. In December 2023, we exercised the $250 million accordion feature under the credit facility to fund our commercial roofing platform acquisition. Accordingly, the second amended and restated credit agreement currently provides for a committed multi-currency revolving credit facility of US$1.25 billion on an unsecured basis. The Credit Agreement requires a commitment fee of 0.24% to 0.50% of the unused portion, depending on certain leverage ratios. The indebtedness under the Credit Agreement, the Senior Notes, the NYL Notes and the Prudential Notes rank equally in terms of seniority. We may repay amounts owing under the Credit Agreement at any time without penalty. Advances under the Credit Agreement are subject to certain conditions of drawdown, and may be made by way of US and Canadian prime rate/base rate/SOFR loans, bankers acceptances or letters of credit. The financial covenants contained in the Credit Agreement require that we maintain a total debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio of not more than 3.5 to 1.0 and, on a consolidated and rolling four quarters basis, an interest coverage ratio of greater than 2.0 to 1. To date, we have always complied with the foregoing covenants under the Credit Agreement and the prior credit agreement. All outstanding amounts under the Credit Agreement will be accelerated and must be repaid upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Credit Agreement, in certain circumstances, following written notice from the lenders to such effect. We are prohibited under the Credit Agreement from undertaking certain acquisitions and dispositions, and incurring certain indebtedness and encumbrances, without prior approval of the lenders under the Credit Agreement. The Credit Facility is utilized for working capital and general corporate purposes and to fund future tuck-under acquisitions;

(b) Senior Note Agreement: On June 1, 2015, we entered into the Senior Note Agreement pursuant to which FirstService assumed from Old FSV US$150 million of Senior Notes bearing interest at a rate of 3.84% to 4.84%, depending on leverage ratios. As of December 31, 2023, the current interest rate on the Senior Notes is 3.84%. The Senior Notes are due on January 16, 2025, with five annual equal repayments which began on January 16, 2021, and rank equally with the indebtedness under the Credit Agreement in terms of seniority. We may prepay the Senior Notes at any time in an amount of not less than $5 million at the principal amount of the notes then being repaid, plus accrued interest and a make whole payment. The financial covenants contained in the Senior Note Agreement require that we maintain a total debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio of not more than 3.5 to 1.0 and, on a consolidated and rolling four quarters basis, an interest coverage ratio of greater than 2.0 to 1. To date, we have complied with the foregoing covenants. All outstanding amounts under the Senior Notes will be accelerated and must be repaid upon the occurrence of certain events of default under the Senior Note Agreement. We are prohibited under the Senior Note Agreement from undertaking certain acquisitions and dispositions, and incurring certain indebtedness and encumbrances, without prior approval of the holders of the Senior Notes;

(c) NYL Note Agreement: On September 29, 2022, we entered into the NYL Note Agreement for potential future private placement issuances of NYL Notes with NYL Investors LLC (“New York Life”) of up to US$150 million, net of any existing Senior Notes and NYL Notes held by New York Life. We currently have no remaining capacity under the NYL Note Agreement. The NYL Note Agreement has a three-year term ending September 29, 2025. We have the ability to issue incremental NYL Note tranches under the NYL Note Agreement, subject to acceptance by New York Life, with varying maturities as determined by us, and with coupon pricing determined at the time of each NYL Note issuance. As part of entering into the NYL Note Agreement on September 29, 2022, we issued, on a private placement basis to New York Life, US$60 million of 4.53% NYL Notes due September 29, 2032. Subsequently, in January 2024, we issued, on a private placement basis to New York Life, US$50 million of 5.48% NYL Notes due January 30, 2029 and US$25 million of 5.60% NYL Notes due January 30, 2031. The NYL Notes rank equally with the indebtedness under the Credit Agreement, the Senior Note Agreement and the Prudential Note Agreement in terms of seniority. We may prepay issued NYL Notes at any time in an amount of not less than $5 million at the principal amount of the notes then being repaid, plus accrued interest and a make whole payment. The financial covenants contained in the NYL Note Agreement are the same as those contained in the Senior Note Agreement. To date, we have complied with the foregoing covenants. All outstanding amounts under issued NYL Notes will be accelerated and must be repaid upon the occurrence of certain events of default under the NYL Note Agreement. We are prohibited under the NYL Note Agreement from undertaking certain acquisitions and dispositions, and incurring certain indebtedness and encumbrances, without prior approval of the holders of the NYL Notes. The proceeds from any issued NYL Notes are intended to be utilized for working capital and general corporate purposes and to fund future tuck-under acquisitions, as well as potential repayment of amounts outstanding under the Credit Agreement; and

(d) Prudential Note Agreement: On September 29, 2022, we entered into the Prudential Note Agreement for potential future private placement issuances of Prudential Notes with PGIM Private Capital ("Prudential") of up to US$300 million, net of any existing Senior Notes and Prudential Notes held by Prudential. We currently have US$235 million of remaining capacity under the Prudential Note Agreement. The Prudential Note Agreement has a three-year term ending September 29, 2025. We have the ability to issue incremental Prudential Note tranches under the Prudential Note Agreement, subject to acceptance by Prudential, with varying maturities as determined by us, and with coupon pricing determined at the time of each Prudential Note issuance. In January 2024, we issued, on a private placement basis to Prudential, US$50 million of 5.64% Prudential Notes due January 30, 2031. The Prudential Notes rank equally with the indebtedness under the Credit Agreement, the Senior Note Agreement and the NYL Note Agreement in terms of seniority. We may prepay issued Prudential Notes at any time in an amount of not less than $5 million at the principal amount of the notes then being repaid, plus accrued interest and a make whole payment. The financial covenants contained in the Prudential Note Agreement are the same as those contained in the Senior Note Agreement. To date, we have complied with the foregoing covenants. All outstanding amounts under issued Prudential Notes will be accelerated and must be repaid upon the occurrence of certain events of default under the Prudential Note Agreement. We are prohibited under the Prudential Note Agreement from undertaking certain acquisitions and dispositions, and incurring certain indebtedness and encumbrances, without prior approval of the holders of the Prudential Notes. The proceeds from any issued Prudential Notes are intended to be utilized for working capital and general corporate purposes and to fund future tuck-under acquisitions, as well as potential repayment of amounts outstanding under the Credit Agreement.

In addition to the responsibilities specifically enumerated in this Mandate, the Board may refer to the Committee such matters and questions relating to the financial position of the Company and its subsidiaries as the Board may from time to time see fit.

Membership

The Committee shall consist of at least three directors appointed annually by the Board and shall be selected based upon the following, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations:

a. Independence. Each member shall be independent in accordance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements and in such regard shall have no direct or indirect material relationship with the Company which could, in the view of the Board, reasonably interfere with the exercise of a member's independent judgment.

b. Financially Literate. Each member shall be financially literate or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Committee. For these purposes, an individual is financially literate if he or she has the ability to read and understand a set of financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity of accounting issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of the issues that can reasonably be expected to be raised by the Company's financial statements.

c. Commitment. In addition to being a member of the Committee, if a member is also on the audit committee or board of directors of other public companies, the Board shall determine that such simultaneous service does not impair the ability of such member to serve effectively on the Company's Audit Committee.

Chair and Secretary

The Chair of the Audit Committee shall be selected by the Board. If the Chair is not present, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair for the meeting by majority vote of the members present. The Secretary of the Company shall be the Secretary of the Audit Committee, provided that if the Secretary is not present, the Chair of the meeting may appoint a secretary for the meeting with the consent of the other Committee members who are present.

Meetings

The times and locations of meetings of the Committee and the calling of such meetings, shall be determined from time to time by the Chair of the Committee, in consultation with management when necessary, provided that there shall be a minimum of four meetings per year. The Committee shall have sufficient notice in order to prepare for each meeting. Notice of each meeting shall also be given to the external auditors of the Company, and meetings shall be convened whenever requested by the external auditors or any member of the Committee in accordance with applicable law.

Meeting Agendas

Agendas for meetings of the Audit Committee shall be developed by the Chair of the Committee in consultation with management and the corporate secretary, and shall be circulated to the Committee members prior to any meetings.

Resources and Authority

The Committee shall have the resources and the authority to discharge its responsibilities, including the authority to engage, at the expense of the Company, outside consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties, without seeking approval of the Board or management.

The Committee shall have the authority to conduct any investigation necessary and appropriate to fulfilling its responsibilities, and has direct access to communicate with the external auditors, legal counsel, and officers and employees of the Company.

The members of the Committee have the right, for the purpose of performing their duties, to inspect the books and records of the Company and to discuss such accounts and records and any matters relating to the financial position, risk management and internal controls of the Company with the officers and external auditors of the Company.

Responsibilities

The Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements while the external auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Committee is responsible for overseeing the conduct of those activities by the Company's management and external auditors, and overseeing the activities of any internal audit initiatives. The Company's external auditors are accountable to the Committee as representatives of the Company's shareholders.

It is recognized that members of the Committee are not full-time employees of the Company and do not represent themselves to be accountants or auditors by profession or experts in the fields of accounting or auditing or the preparation of financial statements. It is not the duty or responsibility of the Committee or its members to conduct "field work" or other types of auditing or accounting reviews or procedures. Each member of the Committee shall be entitled to rely on (i) the integrity of those persons and organizations within and outside the Company from whom it receives information, and (ii) the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Committee by such persons or organizations absent actual knowledge to the contrary.

    c. Review with management and the external auditors the Company's annual audited consolidated financial statements and discuss with the external auditors all matters required to be discussed by generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS) in Canada and the United States. This would include reviewing an annual report prepared by the external auditors describing: (i) all critical accounting policies used by the Company, (ii) any material alternative accounting treatments within generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) that have been discussed with management of the Company, including the ramifications of the use of such alternative treatments and disclosures, and (iii) any other material written communications between the external auditors and management;

b. Pre-approve all audit engagements and the provision by the external auditors of all non-audit services, including fees and terms for all audit engagements and non-audit engagements, and in such regard the Committee may establish the types of non-audit services the external auditors shall be prohibited from providing and shall establish the types of audit, audit related and non-audit services for which the Committee will retain the external auditors;

c. Review and approve the Company's policies for the hiring of partners and employees and former partners and employees of the external auditing firm;

The Company's approach includes assessing and managing the risks related with personal and sensitive data that is collected, transmitted or stored by the Company and the control environment in place to protect the privacy of such data;

c. Establish policies and procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of any concerns regarding questionable accounting or other acts and for the receipt, retention and treatment of any such submissions.

4. Legal and Regulatory Requirements

   a. Receive and review timely analysis by management of significant issues relating to public disclosure and reporting, including, prior to finalization, the Management's Discussion and Analysis and Annual Information Form;

FIRSTSERVICE CORPORATION

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT
MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying consolidated financial statements and management discussion and analysis ("MD&A") of FirstService Corporation (the "Company") and all information in this annual report are the responsibility of management and have been approved by the Board of Directors.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America using the best estimates and judgements of management, where appropriate. The most significant of these accounting principles are set out in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements. Management has prepared the financial information presented elsewhere in this annual report and has ensured that it is consistent with the consolidated financial statements.

The MD&A has been prepared in accordance with National Instrument 51-102 of the Canadian Securities Administrators, taking into consideration other relevant guidance, including Regulation S-K of the US Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Board of Directors of the Company has an Audit Committee consisting of three independent directors. The Audit Committee meets regularly to review with management and the independent auditors any significant accounting, internal control, auditing and financial reporting matters.

These consolidated financial statements have been audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, which have been appointed as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company by the shareholders. Their report outlines the scope of their examination and opinion on the consolidated financial statements and the effectiveness of ICFR at December 31, 2023. As auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP have full and independent access to the Audit Committee to discuss their findings.

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting for the Company. Internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Due to its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of its effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management has excluded twelve individually insignificant entities acquired by the Company, including Roofing Corp of America, during the last fiscal period from its assessment of internal control over financial reporting as at December 31, 2023. The total assets and total revenues of the twelve majority-owned entities represent 4.8% and 2.6%, respectively, of the related consolidated financial statement amounts as at and for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Management has assessed the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as at December 31, 2023, based on the criteria set forth in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this assessment, management has concluded that, as at December 31, 2023, the Company's internal control over financial reporting was effective.

The effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as at December 31, 2023, has been audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm as stated in their report which appears herein.

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of FirstService Corporation

Opinions on the Financial Statements and Internal Control over Financial Reporting

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of FirstService Corporation and its subsidiaries (together, the Company) as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of earnings and comprehensive earnings, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the consolidated financial statements). We also have audited the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2023, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO).

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Also in our opinion, the Company maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2023, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the COSO.

Basis for Opinions

The Company's management is responsible for these consolidated financial statements, for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express opinions on the Company's consolidated financial statements and on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud, and whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects.

Our audits of the consolidated financial statements included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements. Our audit of internal control over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. Our audits also included performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinions.

As described in Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting, management has excluded 12 entities, including Roofing Corp of America, from its assessment of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2023 because they were acquired by the Company in purchase business combinations during 2023. We have also excluded these 12 entities from our audit of internal control over financial reporting. These entities, each of which is majority-owned, comprised, in aggregate, total assets and total revenues excluded from management's assessment and our audit of internal control over financial reporting of approximately 4.8% and 2.6% of consolidated total assets and consolidated total revenues, respectively, as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Definition and Limitations of Internal Control over Financial Reporting

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Critical Audit Matters

The critical audit matters communicated below are matters arising from the current period audit of the consolidated financial statements that were communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that (i) relate to accounts or disclosures that are material to the consolidated financial statements and (ii) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of critical audit matters does not alter in any way our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matters below, providing separate opinions on the critical audit matters or on the accounts or disclosures to which they relate.

Acquisition of Roofing Corp of America – Valuation of Customer Relationships

As described in note 4 to the consolidated financial statements, on December 18, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of Roofing Corp of America (the acquired business) for total purchase consideration of $447.2 million. Of the acquired intangible assets of $234.8 million, $212.9 million related to customer relationships. Management recorded the customer relationships acquired at fair value on the date of the acquisition, and estimated the fair value using the income approach. Management applied significant judgment in estimating the fair value of the customer relationships acquired, which included the use of assumptions with respect to future earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) margins, revenue attributable to returning customers, revenue growth rates, expected attrition rates of acquired customer relationships and the discount rate.

The principal considerations for our determination that performing procedures relating to the valuation of customer relationships acquired in the acquisition of Roofing Corp of America is a critical audit matter are (i) the significant judgment by management when developing the fair value estimate of the customer relationships acquired; (ii) a high degree of auditor judgment, subjectivity and effort in performing procedures and evaluating management's assumptions related to future EBITDA margins, revenue attributable to returning customers, revenue growth rates, expected attrition rates of acquired customer relationships and the discount rate: and (iii) the audit effort involved the use of professionals with specialized skill and knowledge.

Addressing the matter involved performing procedures and evaluating audit evidence in connection with forming our overall opinion on the consolidated financial statements. These procedures included testing the effectiveness of controls relating to the acquisition accounting, including controls over management's valuation of the customer relationships acquired. These procedures also included, among others, (i) reading the purchase agreement; (ii) testing management's process for developing the fair value estimate of the customer relationships acquired; (iii) evaluating the appropriateness of the income approach used by management; (iv) testing the completeness and accuracy of the data used in estimating the fair value of the customer relationships; and (v) evaluating the reasonableness of assumptions used by management related to future EBITDA margins, revenue attributable to returning customers, revenue growth rates, expected attrition rates of acquired customer relationships and the discount rate. Evaluating the reasonableness of assumptions used by management related to future EBITDA margins, revenue attributable to returning customers, revenue growth rates and expected attrition rates of acquired customer relationships involved considering (i) the current and past performance of the acquired business; (ii) the consistency with external market and industry data; (iii) the consistency with prior acquisitions made by the Company; and (iv) whether the assumptions were consistent with evidence obtained in other areas of the audit. Professionals with specialized skill and knowledge were used to assist in evaluating (i) the appropriateness of the income approach used to estimate the fair value of the customer relationships; and (ii) the reasonableness of the discount rate assumption used.

Qualitative Goodwill Impairment Assessment

As described in notes 2 and 10 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company's goodwill balance was $1.2 billion as of December 31, 2023. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually on August 1, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that goodwill might be impaired, in which case the carrying amount of goodwill is written down to fair value. Impairment of goodwill is performed at the reporting unit level. The Company has seven reporting units. Impairment is tested by first assessing qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount (the qualitative goodwill impairment assessment). Where it is determined to be more likely than not its fair value is greater than its carrying amount, then no further quantitative impairment testing is required. As disclosed by management, management uses significant judgment in assessing the qualitative factors to be considered in the qualitative goodwill impairment assessment, including the financial performance of a reporting unit, changes in the business or economic environment of each reporting unit and the Company overall, or declines in the market value of the Company's own shares.

The principal considerations for our determination that performing procedures relating to the qualitative goodwill impairment assessment is a critical audit matter are the significant judgment by management in assessing the qualitative factors in the qualitative goodwill impairment assessment to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than the carrying amount; and a higher degree of auditor judgment, subjectivity and effort in performing procedures and evaluating audit evidence related to management's qualitative impairment assessment of the financial performance of a reporting unit, changes in the business or economic environment of each reporting unit and the Company overall, or declines in the market value of the Company's own shares.

Addressing the matter involved performing procedures and evaluating audit evidence in connection with forming our overall opinion on the consolidated financial statements. These procedures included testing the effectiveness of controls relating to management's qualitative goodwill impairment assessment. These procedures also included, among others, evaluating the reasonableness of management's qualitative impairment assessment related to the financial performance of each reporting unit, changes in the business or economic environment of each reporting unit and the Company overall, or declines in the market value of the Company's own shares by (i) considering current and past performance of the reporting units; (ii) considering consistency with external market and industry data; (iii) comparing share price trends and market capitalization for the Company to historical amounts; and (iv) considering consistency with evidence obtained in other areas of the audit.

1. Description of the business

FirstService Corporation (the "Company") is a North American provider of residential property management and other essential property services to residential and commercial customers. The Company's operations are conducted in two segments: FirstService Residential and FirstService Brands. The segments are grouped with reference to the nature of services provided and the types of clients that use those services.

FirstService Residential is a full-service property manager and in many markets provides a full range of ancillary services primarily in the following areas: (i) on-site staffing, including building engineering and maintenance, full-service amenity management, security, concierge and front desk personnel; (ii) proprietary banking and insurance products; and (iii) energy conservation and management solutions.

FirstService Brands provides a range of essential property services to residential and commercial customers in North America through company-owned operations and franchise systems. The principal brands in this division include First Onsite Property Restoration, Paul Davis Restoration, Roofing Corp of America, Century Fire Protection, California Closets, CertaPro Painters, Floor Coverings International and Pillar to Post Home Inspectors.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The most significant estimates are related to the determination of fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations, and recoverability of goodwill and intangible assets. Actual results could be materially different from these estimates.

Significant accounting policies are summarized as follows:

Basis of consolidation
The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its majority-owned subsidiaries where the Company is the primary beneficiary. Inter-company transactions and accounts are eliminated on consolidation.

Cash and cash equivalents
Cash equivalents consist of short-term interest-bearing securities, which are readily convertible into cash and have original maturities at the date of purchase of three months or less.

Restricted cash
Restricted cash consists of cash over which the Company has legal ownership but is restricted as to its availability or intended use, including funds held on behalf of clients and franchisees.

The Company's restricted cash balance consists primarily of cash related to our marketing funds in the FirstService Brands segment, cash held for certain employees' benefit plans, and cash held for insurance broker commissions owed in our FirstService Residential segment.

Accounts Receivable
In the ordinary course of business the Company extends non-interest bearing trade credit to its customers. Accounts receivable are carried at amortized cost and reported on the face of the consolidated balance sheets, net of an allowance for credit losses. The Company maintains an allowance for credit losses to provide for the estimated amount of receivables that will not be collected. In determining the allowance for credit losses, the Company analyzes the aging of accounts receivable, historical payment experience, customer creditworthiness and current economic trends.

The allowance for credit losses is based on the Company's assessment of the collectability of customer accounts. The measurement of expected credit losses is based on relevant information about past events, including historical experience, credit quality, the age of the accounts receivable balances, and current economic conditions that may impact a customer's ability to pay.

Inventories
Finished goods and supplies and other inventories are carried at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using the weighted average method. Work-in-progress inventory relates to construction contracts and real estate project management projects in process.

Fixed assets
Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. The costs of additions and improvements are capitalized, while maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Fixed assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset group may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recorded to the extent the carrying amount exceeds the estimated fair value of an asset group. Fixed assets are depreciated over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings	20 to 40 years straight-line
Vehicles	3 to 5 years straight-line
Furniture and equipment	3 to 10 years straight-line
Computer equipment and software	3 to 5 years straight-line
Leasehold improvements	term of the lease to a maximum of 10 years straight-line

Fair value
The Company uses the fair value measurements framework for financial assets and liabilities and for non-financial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value on a non-recurring basis. The framework defines fair value, gives guidance for measurement and disclosure, and establishes a three-level hierarchy for observable and unobservable inputs used to measure fair value. The classification of an asset or liability within the hierarchy is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The three levels are as follows:

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
Level 2 – Observable market-based inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for which there is little or no market data, which requires the Company to develop its own assumptions

Financing fees
Financing fees related to our second amended and restated credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with a syndicate of lenders, our $60,000 of senior secured notes (the "Senior Notes"), and our $ 60,000 of senior unsecured notes (the "Notes") are deferred and amortized to interest expense using the effective interest method.

Leases
The Company has lease agreements with lease and non-lease components, and has elected to account for each lease component (e.g., fixed rent payments) separately from the non-lease components (e.g., common-area maintenance costs). The Company has also elected not to recognize the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less. Leases are recognized on the balance sheet when the lease term commences, and the associated lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

At lease commencement, which is generally when the Company takes possession of the asset, the Company records a lease liability and a corresponding right-of-use asset. Lease liabilities represent the present value of minimum lease payments over the expected lease term, which includes options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain those options will be exercised. The present value of the lease liability is determined using the Company's incremental collateralized borrowing rate at the lease commencement.

Minimum lease payments include base rent, fixed escalation of rental payments, and rental payments that are adjusted periodically depending on a rate or index.

Right-of-use assets represent the right to control the use of the leased asset during the lease and are initially recognized in an amount equal to the lease liability. In addition, prepaid rent, initial direct costs, and adjustments for lease incentives are components of the right-of-use asset. Over the lease term the lease expense is amortized on a straight-line basis beginning on the lease commencement date. Right-of-use assets are assessed for impairment as part of the impairment of long-lived assets, which is performed whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable.

Goodwill and intangible assets

Goodwill represents the excess of purchase price over the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination and is not subject to amortization.

Intangible assets are recorded at fair value on the date they are acquired. They are amortized over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Customer relationships	straight-line over 4 to 20 years
Franchise rights	by pattern of use, currently estimated at 2.5% to 15% per year
Trademarks and trade names	straight-line over 1 to 35 years
Management contracts and other	straight-line over life of contract ranging from 2 to 20 years
Backlog	straight-line over 6 to 12 months

The Company reviews the carrying value of finite life intangible assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset group may not be recoverable from the estimated future cash flows expected to result from their use and eventual disposition. If the sum of the undiscounted expected future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of the asset group, an impairment loss is recognized. Measurement of the impairment loss is based on the excess of the carrying amount of the asset group over the fair value calculated using an income approach.

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually, on August 1, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the asset might be impaired, in which case the carrying amount of the asset is written down to fair value.

Impairment of goodwill is tested at the reporting unit level. The Company has seven reporting units determined with reference to business segment, customer type, service delivery model and geography. Impairment is tested by first assessing qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. Where it is determined to be more likely than not that its fair value is greater than its carrying amount, then no further testing is required. Where the qualitative analysis is not sufficient to support that the fair value exceeds the carrying amount then a goodwill impairment test is performed. The Company also has an unconditional option to bypass the qualitative assessment for any reporting unit in any period and proceed directly to performing a quantitative goodwill impairment test. The Company may resume performing the qualitative assessment in any subsequent period. A quantitative goodwill impairment test is performed by comparing the fair value of each reporting unit to its carrying value, including goodwill. Fair value is estimated using a market multiple method, which estimates market multiples of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") for comparable entities with similar operations and economic characteristics. Significant assumptions used in estimating the fair value of each reporting unit include the market multiples of EBITDA.

Redeemable non-controlling interests
Redeemable non-controlling interests ("RNCI") are recorded at the greater of (i) the redemption amount or (ii) the amount initially recorded as RNCI at the date of inception of the minority equity position. This amount is recorded in the "mezzanine" section of the balance sheet, outside of shareholders' equity. Changes in the RNCI amount are recognized immediately as they occur.

Revenue recognition and unearned revenues
The Company accounts for a contract with a customer when there is approval and commitment from both parties, the rights of the parties are identified, payment terms are identified, the contract has commercial substance and collectability of consideration is probable. The Company's revenues are measured based on consideration specified in the contract of each customer and revenue is recognized as the performance obligations are satisfied by transferring the control of the service or product to a customer.

(a) Revenues from property and amenity management services
Property and amenity management services represent a series of distinct daily services, that in nature are substantially the same, rendered over time. The Company is compensated for these services through monthly management fees and fees associated with ancillary services. Revenue is recognized for the fees associated with the services performed.

(b) Revenues from construction contracts and service operations other than franchisor operations
Revenues are recognized at the time the service is rendered. Certain services including but not limited to restoration and construction contracts, are recognized over time based on percentage of completion, based on a ratio of actual costs to total estimated contract costs. In cases where anticipated costs to complete a project exceed the revenue to be recognized, a provision for the additional estimated losses is recorded in the period when the loss becomes apparent. Amounts received from customers in advance of services being provided are recorded as unearned revenues when received.

(c) Franchisor operations
The Company operates several franchise systems within its FirstService Brands segment. Initial franchise fees are deferred and recognized over the term of the franchise agreement. Royalty revenues are recognized based on a contracted percentage of franchisee revenues, as reported by the franchisees. Revenues from administrative and other support services, as applicable, are recognized as the services are provided.

The Company's franchise systems operate marketing funds on behalf of franchisees. Advertising fund contributions from franchisees are reported as revenues and advertising fund expenditures are reported as expenses in our statements of earnings. To the extent that contributions received exceed advertising expenditures, the excess amount is accrued and offset as unearned revenue, whereas any expenditures in excess of contributions are expensed as incurred. As such, advertising fund contributions and the related revenues and expenses may be reported in different periods.

Stock-based compensation
For equity classified awards, compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the estimated fair value of the award. The related stock option compensation expense is allocated using the graded attribution method.

Notional value appreciation plans
Under these plans, subsidiary employees are compensated if the notional value of the subsidiary increases. Awards under these plans generally have a term of up to fifteen years and a vesting period of five years. The increase in notional value is calculated with reference to growth in earnings relative to a fixed threshold amount plus or minus changes in indebtedness relative to a fixed opening amount. If an award is subject to a vesting condition, then graded attribution is applied to the intrinsic value. The related compensation expense is recorded in selling, general and administrative expenses, the current liability is recorded in accrued liabilities, and the non-current portion is recorded in other liabilities.

Foreign currency translation
Assets, liabilities and operations of foreign subsidiaries are recorded based on the functional currency of each entity. For certain foreign operations, the functional currency is the local currency, in which case the assets, liabilities and operations are translated at current exchange rates from the local currency to the reporting currency, the US dollar. The resulting unrealized gains or losses are reported as a component of accumulated other comprehensive earnings. Realized and unrealized foreign currency gains or losses related to any foreign dollar denominated monetary assets and liabilities are included in net earnings.

Income tax
Income tax has been provided using the asset and liability method whereby deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future income tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements or income tax returns. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are expected to reverse, be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred income tax assets and liabilities of a change in income tax rates is recognized in earnings in the period in which the change occurs. A valuation allowance is recorded unless it is more likely than not that realization of a deferred income tax asset will occur based on available evidence.

The Company recognizes uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return by recording a liability for unrecognized tax benefits on its balance sheet. Uncertainties are quantified by applying a prescribed recognition threshold and measurement attribute.

The Company classifies interest and penalties associated with income tax positions in income tax expense.

Business combinations
All business combinations are accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. Transaction costs are expensed as incurred.

The determination of fair values of assets and liabilities assumed in business combinations requires the use of estimates and judgement by management, particularly in determining fair values of intangible assets acquired.

The fair value of the contingent consideration is classified as a financial liability and is recorded on the balance sheet at the acquisition date and is re-measured at fair value at the end of each period until the end of the contingency period, with fair value adjustments recognized in earnings.

3. Revenue from contracts with customers

Disaggregated revenues are as follows:

	Year ended December 31
	2023	2022
Revenues
FirstService Residential	$ 1,996,823	$ 1,772,258
FirstService Brands company-owned operations	2,122,691	1,773,446
FirstService Brands franchisor	208,704	195,299
FirstService Brands franchise fee	6,330	4,832

The Company disaggregates revenue by segment. Within the FirstService Brands segment, the Company further disaggregates its company-owned operations revenue; these businesses primarily recognize revenue over time as they perform because of continuous transfer of control to the customer. As such, revenue is recognized based on the extent of progress towards completion of the performance obligation. The Company generally uses the percentage of completion method.

We believe this disaggregation best depicts how the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of the Company's revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors.

The Company's backlog represents remaining performance obligations and is defined as contracted work yet to be performed. As at December 31, 2023, the aggregate amount of backlog was $ 838,335 (2022 - $631,660). The Company expects to recognize revenue on the majority of the remaining backlog over the next 12 months.

Within the FirstService Brands segment, franchise fee revenue recognized during the twelve months ended December 31, 2023 that was included in unearned revenues at the beginning of the period was $5,752 (2022 - $4,649). These fees are recognized over the life of the underlying franchise agreement, usually between 5 - 10 years.

The majority of current unearned revenues as at December 31, 2022 was recognized into income during 2023.

External broker costs and employee sales commissions in obtaining new franchisees are capitalized in accordance with the revenue standard and are amortized over the life of the underlying franchise agreement. Costs amortized during the twelve months ended December 31, 2023 were $2,817 (2022 - $2,014). The closing amount of the capitalized costs to obtain contracts on the balance sheet as at December 31, 2023 was $11,610 (2022 - $8,802). There were no impairment losses recognized related to those assets in the year.

Also included in acquisition-related items was an increase of $16,366 related to contingent acquisition consideration fair value adjustments (2022 – reversal of $594).

The purchase price allocations for certain transactions completed in the last twelve months, including Roofing Corp of America, are not yet complete, pending final determination of the fair value of assets acquired, the corresponding deferred tax liabilities, and final working capital adjustments. The acquisitions referred to above were accounted for by the purchase method of accounting for business combinations. Accordingly, the accompanying consolidated statements of earnings do not include any revenues or expenses related to these acquisitions prior to their respective closing dates. There have been no material changes to the estimated purchase price allocations determined at the time of acquisition during the year ended December 31, 2023.

The amount of revenues and earnings contributed from the date of acquisition and included in the Company’s consolidated results for the year ended December 31, 2023, and the supplemental pro forma revenues and earnings of the combined entity had the acquisition date been January 1, 2022, are as follows:

	Revenues	Net earnings

Supplemental pro forma results were adjusted for non-recurring items.

2022 acquisitions:
The Company completed seven acquisitions in 2022, one in the FirstService Residential segment and six in the FirstService Brands segment. In the FirstService Residential segment, the Company acquired a regional firm operating in New York City. In the FirstService Brands segment, the Company acquired three independent restoration companies operating in Ontario, Alabama, and Louisiana. The Company also acquired two Paul Davis operations located in Nebraska and Utah, as well as a California Closets franchise located in Oregon.

Details of these acquisitions are as follows:

	Aggregate Acquisitions
Accounts receivable	$ 11,478
Other current assets	11,764
Non-current assets	7,848
Accounts payable	(3,877)
Accrued liabilities	(3,305)
Other current liabilities	(7,114)
Non-current liabilities	(3,804)

Redeemable non-controlling interest	(18,262)
	$ (7,280)
Cash consideration, net of cash acquired of $ 8,318	$ 51,994
Acquisition date fair value of contingent consideration	8,933
Total purchase consideration	$ 60,927
Acquired intangible assets	$ 28,201
Goodwill	$ 40,006

In all years presented, the fair values of non-controlling interests for all acquisitions were determined using an income approach with reference to a discounted cash flow model using the same assumptions implied in determining the purchase consideration.

The purchase price allocations of all acquisitions resulted in the recognition of goodwill. The primary factors contributing to goodwill are assembled workforces, synergies with existing operations and future growth prospects. For certain acquisitions completed during the year ended December 31, 2023, goodwill in the amount of $160,831 is deductible for income tax purposes (2022 - $15,797).

The determination of fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations required the use of estimates and judgement by management, particularly in determining fair values of intangible assets acquired. Intangible assets acquired at fair value on the date of acquisition are recorded using the income approach on an individual asset basis. The assumptions used in estimating the fair values of intangible assets include future EBITDA margins, revenue growth rates, revenue attributable to returning customers, expected attrition rates of acquired customer relationships and the discount rates.

The Company typically structures its business acquisitions to include contingent consideration. Vendors, at the time of acquisition, are entitled to receive a contingent consideration payment if the acquired businesses achieve specified earnings levels during the one- to two-year periods following the dates of acquisition. The ultimate amount of payment is determined based on a formula, the key inputs to which are (i) a contractually agreed maximum payment; (ii) a contractually specified earnings level and (iii) the actual earnings for the contingency period. If the acquired business does not achieve the specified earnings level, the maximum payment is reduced for any shortfall, potentially to nil.

The fair value of the contingent consideration liability recorded on the consolidated balance sheet as at December 31, 2023 was $63,478 (see note 18). The estimated range of outcomes (undiscounted) for these contingent consideration arrangements is determined based on the formula price and the likelihood of achieving specified earnings levels over the contingency period, and ranges from $54,721 to a maximum of $64,378. These contingencies will expire during the period extending to November 2025. During the year ended December 31, 2023, $20,136 was paid with reference to such contingent consideration (2022 - $6,806).

5. Leases

The Company has operating leases for corporate offices, copiers, and certain equipment. Its leases have remaining lease terms of 1 year to 15 years, some of which may include options to extend the leases for up to 15 years, and some of which may include options to terminate the leases within 1 year. The Company evaluates renewal terms on a lease by lease basis to determine if the renewal is reasonably certain. The amount of operating lease expense recorded in the statement of earnings for the twelve months ended December 31, 2023 was $53,906 (2022 - $49,544).

Other information related to leases was as follows (in thousands, except lease term and discount rate):

A test for goodwill impairment is required to be completed annually, in the Company's case as of August 1, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the asset might be impaired. Based on the qualitative assessment in 2023, the Company has concluded that goodwill is not impaired. There were no triggering events since the impairment test in August.

11. Long-term debt

	December 31, 2023	December 31, 2022
Credit Agreement	$ 1,042,059	$ 568,672

The Company has $60,000 of Senior Notes bearing interest at a rate of 3.84%. The Senior Notes are due on January 16, 2025, with five annual equal repayments which began on January 16, 2021.

In February 2022, the Company entered into a second amended and restated credit agreement providing for a $ 1,000,000 revolving credit facility on an unsecured basis. The maturity date of the revolving credit facility is February 2027. The revolving credit facility bears interest at 0.20% to 2.50% over floating reference rates, depending on certain leverage ratios. The weighted average interest rate for 2023 was 6.29%. The Facility had $155,450 of available un-drawn credit as at December 31, 2023. As of December 31, 2023, letters of credit in the amount of $ 19,050 were outstanding ($ 15,655 as at December 31, 2022). The current revolving credit facility replaced the Company's previous $450,000 revolving credit facility and $ 440,000 term loan (drawn in a single advance) that were set to mature in January 2023 and June 2024, respectively. The new revolving credit facility was used to repay the remaining term loan balance of $407,000 under the prior credit agreement, and will continue to be utilized for working capital and general corporate purposes and to fund future tuck-under acquisitions. The Company assessed whether the repayment of the term loan balance and expansion of the revolving credit facility constituted a substantial change in the terms of the underlying debt agreements and as a result, this transaction has been treated as a debt extinguishment. In December 2023, the Company exercised the Credit Agreement's $250,000 accordion feature to fund its acquisition of Roofing Corp of America.

The indebtedness under the Credit Agreement and the Senior Notes rank equally in terms of seniority. The Company has granted the lenders under the Credit Agreement and the holders of the Senior Notes various security, including an interest in all of our assets. The Company is prohibited under the Credit Agreement and the Senior Notes from undertaking certain acquisitions and dispositions, and incurring certain indebtedness and encumbrances, without prior approval of the lenders under the Credit Agreement and the holders of the Senior Notes.

In September 2022, the Company entered into two revolving, uncommitted financing facilities for potential future private placement issuances of senior unsecured notes (the "Notes") aggregating $450,000 with its existing lenders, NYL Investors LLC ("New York Life") of up to $150,000 and PGIM Private Capital ("Prudential"), of up to $ 300,000, in each case, net of any existing notes held by them. The facilities each have a three-year term ending September 29, 2025. The Company has the ability to issue incremental Note tranches under the Facilities, subject to acceptance by New York Life or Prudential, with varying maturities as determined by the Company, and with coupon pricing determined at the time of each Note issuance. As part of the closing of the New York Life facility, the Company issued, on a private placement basis to New York Life, $60,000 of 4.53% Notes, which are due in full on September 29, 2032, with interest payable semi-annually.

In January 2024, the Company issued, on a private placement basis to New York Life, $ 50,000 of 5.48% Notes, which are due in full on January 30, 2029, as well as $25,000 of 5.60% Notes, which are due in full on January 30, 2031, both with interest payable semi-annually. Also in January 2024, the Company issued, on a private placement basis to Prudential, $ 50,000 of 5.64% Notes, which are due in full on January 30, 2031, with interest payable semi-annually.

The effective interest rate on the Company's long-term debt for the year ended December 31, 2023 was 5.97% (2022 – 3.78%). The estimated aggregate amount of principal repayments on long-term debt required in each of the next five years ending December 31 and thereafter to meet the retirement provisions are as follows:

2024	$ 37,132
2025	36,187
2026	3,578
2027	1,044,428
2028 and thereafter	60,782

12. Redeemable non-controlling interests

The minority equity positions in the Company's subsidiaries are referred to as redeemable non-controlling interests ("RNCI"). The RNCI are considered to be redeemable securities. The following table provides a reconciliation of the beginning and ending RNCI amounts:

	2023	2022
Balance, January 1	$ 233,429	$ 219,135

Other	706	1,611
Balance, December 31	$ 332,963	$ 233,429

The Company has shareholders' agreements in place at each of its non-wholly owned subsidiaries. These agreements allow the Company to "call" the non-controlling interest at a price determined with the use of a formula price, which is usually equal to a fixed multiple of average annual net earnings before extraordinary items, income taxes, interest, depreciation, and amortization. The agreements also have redemption features which allow the owners of the RNCI to "put" their equity to the Company at the same price subject to certain limitations. The formula price is referred to as the redemption amount and may be paid in cash or in Common Shares. The redemption amount as of December 31, 2023 was $293,911 (2022 - $208,946). The redemption amount is lower than that recorded on the balance sheet as the formula price of certain RNCI are lower than the amount initially recorded at the inception of the minority equity position. If all put or call options were settled with Common Shares as at December 31, 2023, approximately 1,800,000 such shares would be issued, and would have resulted in an increase of $ 0.75 to earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2023.

13. Capital stock

The authorized capital stock of the Company is as follows:

An unlimited number of Common Shares having one vote per share.

The following table provides a summary of total capital stock issued and outstanding:

	Common Shares
	Number	Amount
Balance, December 31, 2023	44,682,427	$ 855,817

14. Stock-based compensation

The Company has a stock option plan for certain officers and key full-time employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. Options are granted at the market price for the underlying shares on the date of grant. Each option vests over a four-year term, expires five years from the date granted and allows for the purchase of one Common Share. All Common Shares issued are new shares. As at December 31, 2023, there were 1,918,740 options available for future grants.

Grants under the Company's stock option plan are equity-classified awards. Stock option activity for the year ended December 31, 2023 is as follows:

	Number of options	Weighted average exercise price	Weighted average remaining contractual life (years)	Aggregate intrinsic value
Shares issuable under options - Beginning of period	2,337,573	$ 120.06
Granted	615,000	142.20
Exercised	(455,934)	73.73
Forfeited	(75,890)	144.43
Shares issuable under options - December 31, 2023	2,420,749	$ 133.65	2.5	$ 68,849
Options exercisable - End of period	1,044,891	$ 120.60	1.6	$ 43,351

The Company incurred stock-based compensation expense related to these awards of $ 21,385 during the year ended December 31, 2023 (2022 - $18,046).

As at December 31, 2023, the range of option exercise prices was $83.89 to $162.25 per share.

The following table summarizes information about option exercises during year ended December 31, 2023:

	2023
Number of options exercised	455,934
Aggregate fair value	$ 66,499
Intrinsic value	32,883
Amount of cash received	33,616

As at December 31, 2023, there was $21,024 of unrecognized compensation cost related to non-vested awards which is expected to be recognized over the next 4 years. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the fair value of options vested was $16,204 (2022 - $12,623).

The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model, utilizing the following weighted average assumptions:

	2023
Risk free rate	4.0%
Expected life in years	4.20
Expected volatility	33.5%
Dividend yield	0.6%
Weighted average fair value per option granted	$ 44.19

The risk-free interest rate is based on the implied yield of a zero-coupon US Treasury bond with a term equal to the option's expected term. The expected life in years represents the estimated period of time until exercise and is based on historical experience. The expected volatility is based on the historical prices of the Company's shares over the previous four years.

15. Income tax

Income tax differs from the amounts that would be obtained by applying the statutory rate to the respective year's earnings before tax. Differences result from the following items:

	2023	2022
Income tax expense using combined statutory rate of 26.5% (2022 - 26.5%)	$ 53,884	$ 51,405
Permanent differences	2,075	584
Adjustments to tax liabilities for prior periods	111	230
Non-deductible stock-based compensation	5,667	4,782
Foreign, state and provincial tax rate differential	(5,420)	(8,043)
Other taxes	-	16
Provision for income taxes as reported	$ 56,317	$ 48,974

Earnings before income tax by jurisdiction comprise the following:

	2023	2022
Canada	$ 34,600	$ 32,125
United States	168,738	161,856
Total	$ 203,338	$ 193,981

Income tax expense (recovery) comprises the following:

	2023	2022
Current
Canada	$ 9,494	$ 8,401
United States	64,267	32,585
	73,761	40,986
Deferred
Canada	375	431
United States	(17,819)	7,557
	(17,444)	7,988
Total	$ 56,317	$ 48,974

The significant components of deferred income tax are as follows:

	2023	2022
Deferred income tax assets
Loss carry-forwards	$ 4,943	$ 2,251
Expenses not currently deductible	37,225	31,353
Allowance for credit losses	8,125	4,779
Inventory and other reserves	1,836	3,357
	52,129	41,740
Deferred income tax liabilities
Depreciation and amortization	97,896	86,175
Basis differences of partnerships and other entities	1,919	2,053
Prepaid and other expenses deducted for tax purposes	2,186	1,896
	102,001	90,124
Net deferred income tax asset (liability) before valuation allowance	(49,872)	(48,384)
Valuation allowance	1,400	1,017
Net deferred income tax asset (liability)	$ (51,272)	$ (49,401)

The recoverability of deferred income tax assets is dependent on generating sufficient taxable income before the 20 year loss carry-forward limitation. Although realization is not assured, the Company believes it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will be realized. The amount of the deferred tax asset considered realizable, however, could be reduced in the near term if estimates of future taxable income during the carry-forward period are reduced.

The Company has gross operating loss carry-forwards as follows:

	Loss carry forward		Gross losses not recognized		Net
	2023	2022	2023	2022	2023	2022
Canada	$ 2,048	$ 2,336	$ -	$ -	$ 2,048	$ 2,336
United States	53,295	24,102	20,360	18,324	32,935	5,778

These amounts above are available to reduce future federal, state, and provincial income taxes in their respective jurisdictions. Net operating loss carry-forward balances attributable to the United States and Canada expire over the next 9 to 20 years.

Cumulative unremitted earnings of US and foreign subsidiaries approximated $ 950,864 as at December 31, 2023 (2022 - $842,671). Income tax is not provided on the unremitted earnings of US and foreign subsidiaries because it has been the practice and is the intention of the Company to reinvest these earnings indefinitely in these subsidiaries.

The gross unrecognized tax benefits are $148 (2022 - $148). Of this balance, $148 (2022 - $148) would affect the Company's effective tax rate if recognized. For the year ended December 31, 2023, there was no adjustment to interest and penalties related to provisions for income tax (2022 - nil). As at December 31, 2023, the Company had accrued $38 (2022 - $38) for potential income tax related interest and penalties.

The Company's significant tax jurisdictions include the United States and Canada. The number of years with open tax audits varies depending on the tax jurisdictions. Generally, income tax returns filed with the Canada Revenue Agency and related provinces are open for three to four years and income tax returns filed with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and related states are open for three to five years.

The Company does not currently expect any other material impact on earnings to result from the resolution of matters related to open taxation years, other than noted above. Actual settlements may differ from the amounts accrued. The Company has, as part of its analysis, made its current estimates based on facts and circumstances known to date and cannot predict changes in facts and circumstances that may affect its current estimates.

16. Net earnings per common share

The following table reconciles the denominator used to calculate earnings per common share:

	2023	2022
Shares issued and outstanding at beginning of period	44,226,493	44,013,031
Weighted average number of shares:

Number of shares used in computing diluted earnings per share	44,794,974	44,494,007

17. Other supplemental information

Cash payments made during the period
Income taxes	$ 64,647	$ 55,114
Interest	49,717	23,687

18. Financial instruments

Concentration of credit risk
The Company is subject to credit risk with respect to its cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and other receivables. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to cash and cash equivalents are limited by the use of multiple large and reputable banks. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to the receivables are limited due to the large number of entities comprising the Company's customer base and their dispersion across many different service lines.

During the year ended December 31, 2023, there were $8,102 (2022 - $2,172) of write-offs from the allowance for credit losses.

Interest rate risk
The Company maintains an interest rate risk management strategy that uses interest rate hedging contracts from time to time. The Company's specific goals are to: (i) manage interest rate sensitivity by modifying the characteristics of its debt and (ii) lower the long-term cost of its borrowed funds.

Foreign currency risk
Foreign currency risk is related to the portion of the Company's business transactions denominated in currencies other than U.S. dollars. A portion of revenue is generated by the Company's Canadian operations. The Company's head office expenses are incurred in Canadian dollars which is economically hedged by Canadian dollar denominated revenue.

Fair values of financial instruments
The following table provides the financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value measured on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2023:

	Carrying value at December 31, 2023	Fair value measurements
		Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Contingent consideration liability	$ 63,478	$ -	$ -	$ 63,478
Interest rate swap assets	2,127	-	2,127	-

The Company has two interest rate swaps in place to exchange the floating interest rate on $ 182,500 of debt under its Credit Agreement for a fixed rate. The fair value of the interest rate swap asset was calculated through discounting future expected cash flows using the appropriate prevailing interest rate swap curve adjusted for credit risk. The inputs to the measurement of the fair value of contingent consideration related to acquisitions are Level 3 inputs using a discounted cash flow model; significant model inputs were expected future operating cash flows (determined with reference to each specific acquired business) and discount rates (which range from 8% to 10%). The range of discount rates is attributable to level of risk related to economic growth factors combined with the length of the contingent payment periods; and the dispersion was driven by unique characteristics of the businesses acquired and the respective terms for these contingent payments. Within the range of discount rates, there is a data point concentration at 9%. A 2% increase in the weighted average discount rate would not have a significant impact on the fair value of the contingent consideration balance.

	2023	2022
Balance, January 1	$ 34,188	$ 32,346
Amounts recognized on acquisitions	32,571	8,933
Fair value adjustments	16,366	(594)
Resolved and settled in cash	(20,136)	(6,806)
Other	489	309
Balance, December 31	$ 63,478	$ 34,188
Less: current portion	$ 31,604	$ 25,537
Non-current portion	$ 31,874	$ 8,651

The carrying amounts for cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate fair values due to the short maturity of these instruments, unless otherwise indicated. The inputs to the measurement of the fair value of long term debt are Level 2 inputs. The fair value measurements were made using a net present value approach; significant model inputs were expected future cash outflows and discount rates (which range from 4.5% to 5.0%). The following are estimates of the fair values for other financial instruments:

	2023		2022
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
Other receivables	$ 4,238	$ 4,238	$ 4,881	$ 4,881
Long-term debt	1,182,107	1,183,854	734,463	736,818

Other receivables include notes receivable from non-controlling shareholders and other non-current receivables.

19. Contingencies

In the normal course of operations, the Company is subject to routine claims and litigation incidental to its business. Litigation currently pending or threatened against the Company includes disputes with former employees and commercial liability claims related to services provided by the Company. The Company believes resolution of such proceedings, combined with amounts set aside, will not have a material impact on the Company's financial condition or the results of operations.

20. Related party transactions

The Company has entered into office space rental arrangements and property management contracts with senior managers of certain subsidiaries. These senior managers are usually also minority shareholders of the subsidiaries. The business purpose of the transactions is to rent office space for the Company and to generate property management revenues for the Company. The recorded amount of the rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2023 was $4,555 (2022 - $4,350). These amounts are settled monthly in cash, and are priced at market rates. The rental arrangements have fixed terms of up to 10 years.

As at December 31, 2023, the Company had $6,554 of loans receivable from minority shareholders (December 31, 2022 - $2,374). The business purpose of the loans receivable was to finance the sale of non-controlling interests in subsidiaries to senior managers. The loan amounts are measured based on the formula price of the underlying non-controlling interests, and interest rates are determined based on market rates plus a spread. The loans generally have terms of 5 to 10 years, but are open for repayment without penalty at any time.

21. Segmented information

Operating segments

The Company has two reportable operating segments. The segments are grouped with reference to the nature of services provided and the types of clients that use those services. The Company assesses each segment's performance based on operating earnings or operating earnings before depreciation and amortization. FirstService Residential provides property management and related property services to residential communities in North America. FirstService Brands provides company-owned and franchised property services to customers in North America. Corporate includes the costs of operating the Company's corporate head office. The reportable segment information excludes intersegment transactions.

22. Impact of recently issued accounting standards

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07 – Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. This ASU requires incremental disclosures about a public entity's reportable segments but does not change the definition of a segment or the guidance for determining reportable segments. The new guidance requires disclosure of significant segment expenses that are (1) regularly provided to (or easily computed from information regularly provided to) the chief operating decision maker and (2) included in the reported measure of segment profit or loss. The new standard also allows companies to disclose multiple measures of segment profit or loss if those measures are used to assess performance and allocate resources. The guidance is effective January 1, 2024 and should be adopted retrospectively unless impracticable. The Company is currently assessing the impact of this ASU on its financial disclosures.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09 – Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. This ASU requires significant additional disclosures about income taxes, primarily focused on the disclosure of income taxes paid and the rate reconciliation table. The guidance will be applied prospectively and is effective January 1, 2025. The Company is currently assessing the impact of this ASU on its financial disclosures.

FirstService's business
FirstService is a leading provider of branded essential property services comprised of two reportable operating segments: (i) FirstService Residential, the largest provider of residential property management services in North America; and (ii) FirstService Brands, a leading provider of essential property services to residential and commercial customers through both company-owned operations and franchise systems. The segments are grouped with reference to the nature of services provided and the types of clients that use those services. FirstService Residential and FirstService Brands are described in further detail in our Annual Information Form.

Consolidated review
Our consolidated revenues for the year ended December 31, 2023 were $4.33 billion, an increase of 16% over the prior year. The top-line performance included approximately 10% organic growth, and the balance from recent acquisitions, with resulting growth in Adjusted EBITDA, Operating Earnings and Adjusted EPS (see definitions and reconciliations below). Diluted earnings per share was down versus the prior year primarily due to higher acquisition-related costs, as well as increases to the non-controlling interest redemption increment, further described below.

We acquired controlling interests in twelve businesses in 2023, including three in our FirstService Residential segment and nine in our FirstService Brands segment. The total initial cash consideration for these acquisitions was $547.2 million. Our tuck-under acquisitions support the strategic growth initiatives of our service lines in both segments, which include expanding our geographic footprint into new markets, enhancing our scale in existing markets, broadening our service offerings and expanding coverage of our national client accounts. In the fourth quarter of 2023, we also completed a larger acquisition by adding Roofing Corp of America, a commercial roofing company headquartered in Atlanta and operating in 11 U.S. states spanning the Sun Belt, Mid-Atlantic, Midwest and West regions.

Results of operations – year ended December 31, 2023
Our revenues were $4.33 billion for 2023, up 16% relative to 2022. The increase included organic revenue growth of 10%, with the balance coming from recent acquisitions.

Operating earnings for the year were $244.9 million versus $219.0 million in the prior year period, with the increase attributable to growth in profitability in both divisions. Adjusted EBITDA rose 18% to $415.7 million in 2023 versus $351.7 million in the prior year. Performance in our FirstService Residential division was driven by new contract wins and growth in labour-related services revenue with our existing clients. Our FirstService Brands division was driven by broad-based organic growth, with particular strength at Century Fire and our restoration operations, together with contribution from recent tuck-under acquisitions.

Depreciation and amortization expense was $127.9 million in 2023 relative to $110.1 million in the prior year, with the increase primarily related to recently acquired company-owned operations in our FirstService Brands segment.

Acquisition-related costs were $21.5 million, relative to $4.5 million in the prior year, and included $16.4 million of contingent acquisition consideration fair value adjustments from outperformance on prior tuck-under acquisitions, with most of these adjustments in our FirstService Brands segment.

Net interest expense increased to $47.4 million in 2023, up from $25.2 million in the prior year, with the difference primarily attributable to the higher cost of debt, as well as an increase in our average outstanding debt. Our weighted average interest rate increased to 6.0% in 2023 from 3.8% in the prior year.

Other income was $5.8 million versus $0.1 million in the prior year. Other income in the current period included a pre-tax gain of $4.4 million from the sale of a building located in South Florida within the FirstService Residential segment.

Our consolidated income tax rate for the period was 28%, versus 25% in the prior year, and relative to the statutory rate of 27% in both periods.

Net earnings for the period were $147.0 million versus $145.0 million a year ago. The increase was attributable to higher profitability in both segments, partially offset by higher interest expense in the current year.

The redeemable non-controlling interest ("RNCI") share of earnings was $14.1 million for the year, relative to $9.4 million in the prior year period, with the increase attributable to the mix of two-year average earnings of our non-wholly owned subsidiaries. The RNCI redemption increment was $32.5 million, versus $14.6 million in the prior period, and was attributable to changes in the trailing two-year average of earnings of non-wholly owned subsidiaries.

At FirstService Residential, revenues were $2.0 billion in 2023, up 13% versus the prior year, with the increase comprised of 10% organic growth and the balance from acquisitions. The strong organic growth was primarily driven by new contract wins, together with contribution from increased labour-related and ancillary services with our existing clients. Adjusted EBITDA for this segment was $187.8 million or 9.4% of revenues, relative to $168.6 million or 9.5% of revenues in the prior year. Operating earnings for 2023 were $155.0 million or 7.8% of revenues, relative to $138.9 million or 7.8% of revenues a year ago.

Our FirstService Brands operations reported revenues of $2.34 billion in 2023, an increase of 18% versus the prior year, comprised of 11% organic growth and the balance from tuck-under acquisitions. All service lines contributed to the division's organic revenue growth, including an exceptionally strong increase over the prior year at our Century Fire Protection operations. Adjusted EBITDA for this segment was $242.4 million in 2023 or 10.4% of revenues, relative to $196.3 million or 9.9% of revenues in the prior year. Operating earnings were $126.5 million or 5.4% of revenues, versus $111.6 million or 5.7% of revenues a year ago. The segment EBITDA margin, defined as Adjusted EBITDA divided by revenue, was positively impacted by operating leverage realized from the strong top-line performance in our restoration and Century Fire businesses. The operating earnings margin, defined as operating earnings divided by revenue, was slightly down due to acquisition related items, primarily contingent acquisition consideration fair value adjustments.

Corporate costs (see definitions and reconciliations below), as presented in Adjusted EBITDA, were $14.4 million in 2023 relative to $13.2 million in the prior year. Corporate costs were $36.6 million versus $31.5 million in the prior year, with the increase primarily due to higher stock-based compensation expense.

Results of operations – year ended December 31, 2022

Our revenues were $3.75 billion for 2022, up 15% relative to 2021. The increase included organic revenue growth of 9%, with the balance coming from acquisitions in the year.

Operating earnings for 2022 were $219.0 million versus $201.6 million in 2021, with the increase attributable to growth in profitability in both segments. Adjusted EBITDA rose 7% to $351.7 million in 2022 versus $327.4 million in the prior year. Performance in our FirstService Residential segment was driven by growth in labour-related services revenue. Our FirstService Brands division was driven by broad-based organic growth, with particular strength at our home services and Century Fire Protection brands, together with contribution from recent tuck-under acquisitions.

Depreciation and amortization expense was $110.1 million in 2022 relative to $99.0 million in 2021, with the increase primarily related to recently acquired company-owned operations in our FirstService Brands segment.

Net interest expense increased to $25.2 million in 2022, up from $16.0 million in the prior year, with the difference primarily attributable to the higher cost of debt, as well as an increase in our average outstanding debt. Our weighted average interest rate increased to 3.8% in 2022 from 2.8% in the prior year.

Other income was $0.1 million in 2022 versus $23.4 million in the prior year. Other income in 2021 included a $12.5 million pre-tax gain from the divestiture of our immaterial, non-core pest control operation in the FirstService Residential segment. Also included in 2021 other income was a pre-tax gain of $7.3 million from the sale of a building located in South Florida, also in the FirstService Residential segment.

Our consolidated income tax rate for 2022 was 25%, flat versus 2021, and relative to the statutory rate of 27% in both periods.

Net earnings for 2022 were $145.0 million versus $156.1 million in 2021. The decrease was attributable to higher interest expense in the current year, as well as comparatively higher other income in 2021, partially offset by operating earnings growth in both divisions.

At FirstService Residential, revenues were $1.77 billion in 2022, up 12% versus the prior year, with the increase comprised of 8% organic growth and the balance from acquisitions. Organic growth was primarily due to increased labour-related services compared to the prior year. Adjusted EBITDA for this segment was $168.6 million or 9.5% of revenues, relative to $156.7 million or 9.9% of revenues in the prior year. Operating earnings for 2022 were $138.9 million or 7.8% of revenues, relative to $127.3 million or 8.0% of revenues in the prior year. The segment EBITDA margin, defined as Adjusted EBITDA divided by revenue, and the operating earnings margin, defined as operating earnings divided by revenue, were impacted by wage inflation, as well as higher growth of labour-driven revenues relative to higher margin ancillaries.

Our FirstService Brands operations reported revenues of $1.97 billion in 2022, an increase of 19% versus the prior year, comprised of 11% organic growth and the balance from tuck-under acquisitions. Organic revenue growth was broad-based across the division and included significant double-digit increases in our home services and Century Fire brands. Adjusted EBITDA for this segment was $196.3 million in 2022 or 9.9% of revenues, relative to $187.9 million or 11.3% of revenues in the prior year. Operating earnings were $111.6 million or 5.7% of revenues, versus $106.6 million or 6.4% of revenues in the prior year. The division margin decline was a result of cost inflationary pressures within some of the businesses in this division, in addition to the combined impact of growth-related platform investments and more tempered weather-claim activity within our restoration operations.

Corporate costs, as presented in Adjusted EBITDA, were $13.2 million in 2022 relative to $17.2 million in the prior year. The year-over-year decrease was primarily due to lower annual cash-based incentive compensation expense in 2022. Corporate costs were $31.5 million versus $32.2 million in 2021, with higher stock-based compensation expense partially offsetting the decrease in annual cash-based incentive compensation.

Results of operations – fourth quarter ended December 31, 2023
Consolidated revenues for the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2023 were up 6% relative to the same period in 2022. Adjusted EBITDA was $103.3 million, up from $102.5 million in the prior year quarter. Operating Earnings were $48.1 million, relative to $67.5 million in the fourth quarter of 2022. Consolidated operating margins were lower in the quarter due to the results in the FirstService Brands segment, which are described below.

FirstService Residential revenues increased 12% during the quarter, including 9% organic growth. Growth was driven by new contract wins, with particularly strong performance at our sited labour communities. Adjusted EBITDA for the quarter was $43.5 million, compared to $38.1 million reported in the prior year quarter. Operating Earnings were $34.1 million during the quarter, versus $30.6 million for the fourth quarter of the prior year. Operating margins were relatively in-line with the prior year quarter.

Our FirstService Brands operations reported revenue growth of 1% in the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2023 compared to the prior year quarter. Revenues declined 7% on an organic basis due to milder weather patterns at our restoration operations, compared to the significant loss claims activity from hurricanes Ian and Fiona in the prior year quarter. The division top-line performance included very strong growth at Century Fire together with solid contribution from our home services brands, partially offsetting the restoration-driven headwinds. Adjusted EBITDA for the quarter was $61.1 million, compared to $67.4 million in the prior year quarter. Operating Earnings were $20.6 million, versus $44.0 million in the prior year quarter. The division EBITDA margin decline was primarily attributable to lower profitability in our restoration operations due to the reduced weather-related activity during the period. The operating earnings margin was further impacted by significant contingent acquisition consideration fair value adjustments.

Operating outlook
We are committed to a long-term growth strategy that is primarily driven by average annual organic revenue growth in the mid-single digit range, combined with tuck-under acquisitions within each of our service platforms, resulting in targeted average annual growth in revenues of 10% or higher. We are targeting some incremental operating leverage and modestly higher growth rates for operating earnings. Economic conditions and growth-related investments in our operations will negatively or positively impact these target growth rates in any given year.

In our FirstService Residential segment, revenues are expected to increase at a mid-single digit percentage organic growth rate in 2024 primarily from new business wins. Any additional tuck-under acquisitions will augment organic growth. Operating margins for 2024 are expected to be approximately in-line with 2023.

Our FirstService Brands segment is expected to generate a mid-teens total revenue growth rate largely driven by the recent acquisition of Roofing Corp of America. Our organic growth at our restoration brands in any given year is dependent on some degree of weather-driven claims activity, which can be unpredictable given the uncertainty of weather patterns. Operating margins are expected to be approximately in-line with 2023, unless influenced by varying levels of weather-related activity at our restoration operations.

The foregoing contains forward-looking statements, and readers should refer to “Forward-looking statements and risks” below regarding our cautions relating to these forward-looking statements and the material risk factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements. The above forward-looking statements are made on the assumption that general economic conditions and the conduct of the Company’s businesses remain as they exist on the date hereof, with none of the material risk factors (as noted under “Forward-looking statements and risks” below) occurring during 2024.

Seasonality and quarterly fluctuations
Certain segments of the Company’s operations are subject to seasonal variations. The seasonality of the service lines results in variations in quarterly revenues and operating margins. Variations can also be caused by acquisitions or dispositions, which alter the consolidated service mix.

FirstService Residential generates peak revenues and earnings in the third quarter, as seasonal ancillary swimming pool management revenues are earned. FirstService Brands includes restoration operations, which are influenced by weather patterns that historically have resulted in higher revenues and earnings in any given reporting quarter, and certain franchise operations, which generate the majority of their revenues during the second and third quarters.

Liquidity and capital resources

The Company generated cash flow from operating activities of $280.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2023, up from $105.9 million in the prior year. Operating cash flow, before the impact of working capital, was favourably impacted by increased profitability at both of our segments. In the prior year, there were significant increases in non-cash working capital in our restoration businesses in the FirstService Brands segment, in response to area-wide weather events, primarily hurricanes Ian and Fiona. We believe that cash from operations and other existing resources, including our revolving credit facility described below, will continue to be adequate to satisfy the ongoing working capital needs of the Company.

We had outstanding $60 million of senior secured notes on December 31, 2023 bearing interest at a rate of 3.84% to 4.84%, depending on leverage ratios. As of December 31, 2023 and on the date hereof, the current interest rate is 3.84%. On the date hereof, we have outstanding $30 million of senior secured notes. The remaining outstanding amount of senior secured notes is due on January 16, 2025.

In February 2022, we entered into a second amended and restated credit agreement providing for a $1 billion revolving credit facility on an unsecured basis. The maturity date of the revolving credit facility is February 2027. The new revolving credit facility bears interest at 0.20% to 2.50% over floating reference rates, depending on certain leverage ratios. The current revolving credit facility replaced our previous $450 million revolving credit facility and $440 million term loan (drawn in a single advance) that were set to mature in January 2023 and June 2024, respectively. The new revolving credit facility was used to repay the remaining term loan balance of $407 million under the prior credit agreement, and will continue to be utilized for working capital and general corporate purposes and to fund future tuck-under acquisitions. In December 2023, the Company exercised the $250 million accordion feature under the credit facility to fund its commercial roofing platform acquisition. Accordingly, the second amended and restated credit agreement currently provides for a committed multi-currency revolving credit facility of US$1.25 billion on an unsecured basis.

In September 2022, the Company entered into two revolving, uncommitted financing facilities for potential future private placement issuances of senior unsecured notes (the “Notes”) aggregating $450 million with its existing lenders, NYL Investors LLC (“New York Life”) of up to $150 million and PGIM Private Capital (“Prudential”), of up to $300 million, in each case, net of any existing notes held by them. The facilities each have a three-year term ending September 29, 2025. The Company has the ability to issue incremental Note tranches under the facilities, subject to acceptance by New York Life or Prudential, with varying maturities as determined by the Company, and with coupon pricing determined at the time of each Note issuance. As part of the closing of the New York Life facility, the Company issued, on a private placement basis to New York Life, $60 million of 4.53% Notes, which are due in full on September 29, 2032, with interest payable semi-annually. In January 2024, the Company issued, on a private placement basis to New York Life, $50 million of 5.48% Notes, which are due in full on January 30, 2029, as well as $25 million of 5.60% Notes, which are due in full on January 30, 2031, both with interest payable semi-annually. Also in January 2024, the Company issued, on a private placement basis to Prudential, $50 million of 5.64% Notes, which are due in full on January 30, 2031, with interest payable semi-annually.

During 2023, we invested cash in acquisitions as follows: an aggregate of $547.2 million (net of cash acquired) in twelve new business acquisitions, $20.1 million in contingent consideration payments related to previously completed acquisitions, and $4.3 million in acquisitions of RNCI.

In relation to acquisitions completed during the past two years, we have outstanding contingent consideration, assuming all contingencies are satisfied and payment is due in full, totalling $63.5 million as at December 31, 2023 (December 31, 2022 - $34.2 million). The contingent consideration liability is recognized at fair value upon acquisition and is updated to fair value each quarter. The contingent consideration is based on achieving specified earnings levels, and is paid or payable after the end of the contingency period, which extends to November 2025. We estimate that a majority of the contingent consideration outstanding as of December 31, 2023 will ultimately be paid.

Capital expenditures for the year were $92.7 million (2022 - $77.6 million), which consisted primarily of service vehicle fleet replacements and additions in the FirstService Brands segment, as well as information technology system and hardware investments in both of our operating segments. The current year figure also included leasehold improvements and office relocations in the FirstService Residential segment.

Net indebtedness as at December 31, 2023 was $994.5 million, versus $598.2 million at December 31, 2022. Net indebtedness is calculated as the current and non-current portions of long-term debt less cash and cash equivalents. We were in compliance with the covenants contained in our credit agreement and the agreements governing our senior secured notes and the Notes as at December 31, 2023 and we expect to remain in compliance with such covenants going forward.

The Company declared common share dividends totalling $0.90 per share during 2023, with $0.8775 paid in cash during the year and $0.225 paid in January 2024. In February 2024, our Board of Directors approved an increase to our dividend such that, commencing with the quarter ended March 31, 2024, the quarterly dividend would be US$0.25 per share (a rate of US$1.00 per share per annum). The Company's policy is to pay quarterly dividends on its common shares in the future, subject to the discretion of our Board of Directors.

During the year we distributed $7.4 million (2022 - $8.1 million) to non-controlling shareholders of subsidiaries.

The following table summarizes our contractual obligations as at December 31, 2023:

Contractual obligations (in thousands of US$)	Payments due by period
	Total	Less than 1 year	1-3 years	4-5 years	After 5 years
Long-term debt	$ 1,162,059	$ 30,000	$ 30,000	$ 1,042,059	$ 60,000
Interest on long term debt	170,039	66,298	82,016	19,007	2,718
Capital lease obligations	20,048	7,132	9,765	3,151	-

Operating leases	278,611	56,460	101,960	56,650	63,541
Total contractual obligations	$ 1,694,235	$ 191,494	$ 255,615	$ 1,120,867	$ 126,259

At December 31, 2023, we had commercial commitments totaling $19.1 million comprised of letters of credit outstanding due to expire within one year. We are required to make semi-annual payments of interest on both our senior secured and senior unsecured notes at interest rates of 3.84% and 4.53%, respectively.

To manage our insurance costs, we take on risk in the form of high deductibles on many of our coverages. We believe this step reduces overall insurance costs in the long term, but may cause fluctuations in the short term depending on the frequency and severity of insurance incidents.

In most operations where managers or employees are also non-controlling owners, the Company is party to shareholders' agreements. These agreements allow us to "call" the minority position at a value determined with the use of a formula price, which is in most cases equal to a multiple of trailing two-year average earnings, less debt. Non-controlling owners may also "put" their interest to the Company at the same price, with certain limitations including (i) the inability to "put" more than 33% or 50% of their holdings in any twelve-month period and (ii) the inability to "put" any holdings for at least one year after the date of our initial acquisition of the business or the date the non-controlling shareholder acquired their interest, as the case may be. The total value of the RNCI (the "redemption amount"), as calculated in accordance with shareholders' agreements, was as follows.

(in thousands of US$)	December 31 2023	December 31 2022
FirstService Residential	$ 72,140	$ 60,424
FirstService Brands	221,771	148,522
	$ 293,911	$ 208,946

The amount recorded on our balance sheet under the caption “redeemable non-controlling interests” is the greater of (i) the redemption amount (as above) or (ii) the amount initially recorded as RNCI at the date of inception of the minority equity position. As at December 31, 2023, the RNCI recorded on the balance sheet was $333.0 million. The purchase prices of the RNCI may be paid in cash or, in some cases, in common shares of FirstService. If all RNCI were redeemed in cash, the pro forma estimated accretion to net earnings per share for 2023 would be $0.75, and the accretion to Adjusted EPS would be $0.02.

Stock-based compensation expense
One of our key operating principles is for senior management to have a significant long-term equity stake in the businesses they operate. The equity owned by senior management takes the form of stock, stock options or notional value appreciation plans, the latter two of which require the recognition of compensation expense under GAAP. The amount of expense recognized with respect to stock options is determined for the Company plan by allocating the grant-date fair value of each option over the expected term of the option. The amount of expense recognized with respect to the notional value appreciation plans is re-measured quarterly.

Critical accounting estimates
Critical accounting estimates are those that management deems to be most important to the portrayal of our financial condition and results of operations, and that require management’s most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, due to the need to make estimates about the effects of matters that are inherently uncertain. We have identified two critical accounting estimates: determination of fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations, and impairment testing of the carrying value of goodwill.

The determination of fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations requires the use of estimates and judgment by management, particularly in determining fair values of intangible assets acquired. For example, if different assumptions were used regarding the profitability and expected attrition rates of acquired customer relationships and the discount rates, different amounts of intangible assets and related amortization could be reported. Management applied significant judgement in estimating the fair value of the customer relationships acquired, in particular in its acquisition of Roofing Corp of America, which included the use of assumptions with respect to future earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (“EBITDA”) margins, revenue attributable to returning customers, revenue growth rates, expected attrition rates of acquired customer relationships and the discount rate.

Impairment of goodwill is tested at the reporting unit level. The Company has seven reporting units determined with reference to business segment, customer type, service delivery model and geography. Impairment is tested by first assessing qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. Where it is determined to be more likely than not that its fair value is greater than its carrying amount, then no further testing is required. Where the qualitative analysis is not sufficient to support that the fair value exceeds the carrying amount, then a goodwill impairment test is performed. The Company also has an unconditional option to bypass the qualitative assessment for any reporting unit in any period and proceed directly to performing a quantitative goodwill impairment test. The Company may resume performing the qualitative assessment in any subsequent period. A quantitative goodwill impairment test is performed by comparing the fair value of each reporting unit to its carrying value, including goodwill. Fair value is estimated using a market multiple method, which estimates market multiples of EBITDA for comparable entities with similar operations and economic characteristics. Significant assumptions used in estimating the fair value of each reporting unit include the market multiples of EBITDA. Management uses significant judgment in assessing the qualitative factors to be considered in the qualitative goodwill impairment assessment, including the financial performance of a reporting unit, changes in the business and economic environment of each reporting unit and the Company overall, or declines in the market value of the Company’s own shares.

Reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures

In this MD&A, we make reference to "Adjusted EBITDA" and "Adjusted EPS," which are financial measures that are not calculated in accordance with GAAP.

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net earnings, adjusted to exclude: (i) income tax; (ii) other expense (income); (iii) interest expense; (iv) depreciation and amortization; (v) acquisition-related items; and (vi) stock-based compensation expense. The Company uses Adjusted EBITDA to evaluate its own operating performance and its ability to service debt, as well as an integral part of its planning and reporting systems. Additionally, this measure is used in conjunction with discounted cash flow models to determine the Company's overall enterprise valuation and to evaluate acquisition targets. Adjusted EBITDA is presented as a supplemental measure because the Company believes such measure is useful to investors as a reasonable indicator of operating performance because of the low capital intensity of its service operations. The Company believes this measure is a financial metric used by many investors to compare companies, especially in the services industry. This measure is not a recognized measure of financial performance under GAAP in the United States, and should not be considered as a substitute for operating earnings, net earnings or cash flow from operating activities, as determined in accordance with GAAP. The Company's method of calculating Adjusted EBITDA may differ from other issuers and accordingly, this measure may not be comparable to measures used by other issuers. A reconciliation of net earnings to Adjusted EBITDA appears below.

(1) Corporate costs represent corporate overhead expenses not directly attributable to reportable segments and are therefore unallocated within segment operating earnings (loss) and Adjusted EBITDA.

Adjusted EPS is defined as diluted net earnings per share, adjusted for the effect, after income tax, of: (i) the non-controlling interest redemption increment; (ii) acquisition-related items; (iii) amortization of intangible assets recognized in connection with acquisitions; and (iv) stock-based compensation expense. The Company believes this measure is useful to investors because it provides a supplemental way to understand the underlying operating performance of the Company and enhances the comparability of operating results from period to period. Adjusted EPS is not a recognized measure of financial performance under GAAP, and should not be considered as a substitute for diluted net earnings per common share, as determined in accordance with GAAP. The Company's method of calculating this non-GAAP measure may differ from other issuers and, accordingly, this measure may not be comparable to measures used by other issuers. A reconciliation of diluted net earnings per common share to Adjusted EPS appears below.

(in US$)	Year ended December 31

We believe that the presentation of Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EPS, which are non-GAAP financial measures, provides important supplemental information to management and investors regarding financial and business trends relating to the Company's financial condition and results of operations. We use these non-GAAP financial measures when evaluating operating performance because we believe that the inclusion or exclusion of the items described above, for which the amounts are non-cash or non-recurring in nature, provides a supplemental measure of our operating results that facilitates comparability of our operating performance from period to period, against our business model objectives, and against other companies in our industry. We have chosen to provide this information to investors so they can analyze our operating results in the same way that management does and use this information in their assessment of our core business and the valuation of the Company. Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EPS are not calculated in accordance with GAAP, and should be considered supplemental to, and not as a substitute for, or superior to, financial measures calculated in accordance with GAAP. Non-GAAP financial measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all of the costs or benefits associated with the operations of our business as determined in accordance with GAAP. As a result, investors should not consider these measures in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP.

Transactions with related parties
The Company has entered into office space rental arrangements and property management contracts with senior managers of certain subsidiaries. These senior managers are usually also minority shareholders of the subsidiaries. The business purpose of the transactions is to rent office space for the Company and to generate property management revenues for the Company. The recorded amount of the rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2023 was $4.6 million (2022 - $4.4 million). These amounts are settled monthly in cash, and are priced at market rates. The rental arrangements have fixed terms of up to 10 years.

As at December 31, 2023, the Company had $6.6 million of loans receivable from minority shareholders (December 31, 2022 - $2.4 million). The business purpose of the loans receivable was to finance the sale of non-controlling interests in subsidiaries to senior managers. The loan amounts are measured based on the formula price of the underlying non-controlling interests, and interest rates are determined based on market rates plus a spread. The loans generally have terms of 5 to 10 years, but are open for repayment without penalty at any time.

Canadian tax treatment of common share dividends
For the purposes of the enhanced dividend tax credit rules contained in the Income Tax Act (Canada) and any corresponding provincial and territorial tax legislation, all dividends (and deemed dividends) paid by us to Canadian residents on our common shares are designated as "eligible dividends". Unless stated otherwise, all dividends (and deemed dividends) paid by us hereafter are designated as "eligible dividends" for the purposes of such rules.

Disclosure controls and procedures
Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, with the assistance and participation of other Company management, have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Canada by National Instrument 52-109 – Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings and in the United States by Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) as of December 31, 2023. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of December 31, 2023, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to give reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under Canadian securities legislation and the Exchange Act is: (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified therein; and (ii) accumulated and communicated to management, including the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Management's report on internal control over financial reporting
Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting for the Company. Internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with GAAP.

Due to its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management has excluded twelve entities acquired by the Company in purchase business combinations during the 2023 fiscal year from our assessment of internal control over financial reporting as at December 31, 2023. The total assets and total revenues of the twelve majority-owned entities represent 4.8% and 2.6%, respectively, of the related consolidated financial statement amounts as at and for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Management has assessed the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as at December 31, 2023, based on the criteria set forth in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this assessment, management has concluded that, as at December 31, 2023, the Company's internal control over financial reporting was effective.

The effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as at December 31, 2023, has been audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, as stated in their report dated February 22, 2024 which accompanies the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Changes in internal control over financial reporting
During the year ended December 31, 2023, there were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Legal proceedings
FirstService is involved in litigation in the normal course of its business, both as a defendant and as a plaintiff. Management reviews all of the relevant facts for each claim and applies judgment in evaluating the likelihood and, if applicable, the amount of any potential loss. Where a potential loss is considered probable and the amount is reasonably estimable, provisions for loss are made based on management's assessment of the likely outcome. Where a range of loss can be reasonably estimated with no best estimate in the range, FirstService records the minimum amount in the range. FirstService does not provide for claims for which the outcome is not determinable or claims for which the amount of the loss cannot be reasonably estimated. Any settlements or awards under such claims are provisioned for when reasonably determinable.

As of February 22, 2024, there are no claims outstanding for which FirstService has assessed the potential loss as both probable to result and reasonably estimable, therefore no accrual has been made.

Market risk of financial instruments
FirstService is engaged in operating and financing activities that generate risk in three primary areas as set out below. See Note 18 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding these risks. FirstService's overall risk management program and business practices seek to minimize any potential adverse effects on FirstService's financial performance. Risk management is carried out by the senior management team and is reviewed by FirstService's board of directors.

For an understanding of other potential risks, including non-financial risks, see the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Information Form for the year ended December 31, 2023 available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca, which is also included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 40-F available on EDGAR at www.sec.gov.

Foreign exchange
FirstService is exposed to foreign exchange risk as a result of transactions in currencies other than its functional currency, the U.S. dollar. A majority of FirstService's revenues in fiscal 2023 were transacted in U.S. dollars. A portion of FirstService's revenues were denominated in Canadian dollars, which results in foreign currency exposure related to fluctuations between the Canadian and U.S. dollars. FirstService's head office expenses are incurred in Canadian dollars, which is hedged by Canadian dollar denominated revenue. As an additional part of its risk management strategy, FirstService maintains net monetary asset and/or liability balances in foreign currencies and may engage in foreign currency hedging activities using financial instruments, including currency forward contracts and currency options. FirstService does not use financial instruments for speculative purposes. As at the date of this MD&A, FirstService does not have any such financial instruments.

FirstService's credit agreement allows FirstService to borrow under its revolving credit facility in Canadian and U.S. dollars. To mitigate any foreign exchange risk related to its Canadian dollar denominated debt, FirstService may from time to time enter into forward foreign exchange contracts to sell Canadian dollars in an amount equal to the principal amount of its Canadian dollar denominated borrowings. As at the date of this MD&A, FirstService does not have any such foreign exchange contracts.

Interest rate
FirstService has no significant interest-bearing assets. FirstService's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates.

FirstService's primary interest rate risk arises from its long-term debt under its credit agreement, senior secured notes and senior unsecured notes. FirstService manages its exposure to changes in interest rates by using a combination of fixed and variable rate debt, varying lengths of terms to achieve the desired proportion of variable and fixed rate debt and, from time to time, may enter into hedging/interest rate swap contracts. Fluctuations in interest rates affect the fair value of any hedging/interest rate swap contracts as their value depends on the prevailing market interest rate. Hedging/interest rate swap contracts are monitored on a monthly basis. As of the date of this MD&A, we have two interest swaps in place to exchange the floating interest rate on $182.5 million of debt under our credit agreement for a fixed rate. An increase (or decrease) in interest rates by 1% would result in an $8.4 million increase (or decrease) in annual interest expense under the credit facility contained in FirstService's credit agreement.

Credit risk
Credit risk refers to the risk of losses due to failure of FirstService's customers or other counterparties to meet their payment obligations. Credit risk also arises from deposits with banks. Credit risk with respect to the customer receivables are limited due to the large number of entities comprising FirstService's customer base and their dispersion across many different service lines. Credit risk with respect to deposits is limited by the use of multiple large and reputable banks.

The words "believe," "anticipate," "estimate," "plan," "expect," "intend," "may," "project," "will," "would," and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words.
